Weve gone through good tenies and bad happy and sad but I think after its all over and we have graduated we miss all the tenies no matter how they were. I hope when we are seperated and see each other no more that you will never forget me cause I know I'll never forget you. Weve gotten into it pretty much in the past. I think now is the time to stop and think and make the best of the year. "Our Senior Year". Sometimes it can't believe looking back on the past years that we have made it. It was a real struggle. Remember freshman sophomore & junior english class we sure did struggle to pass. But we finally made it to our last year of American Lit. I hope we will

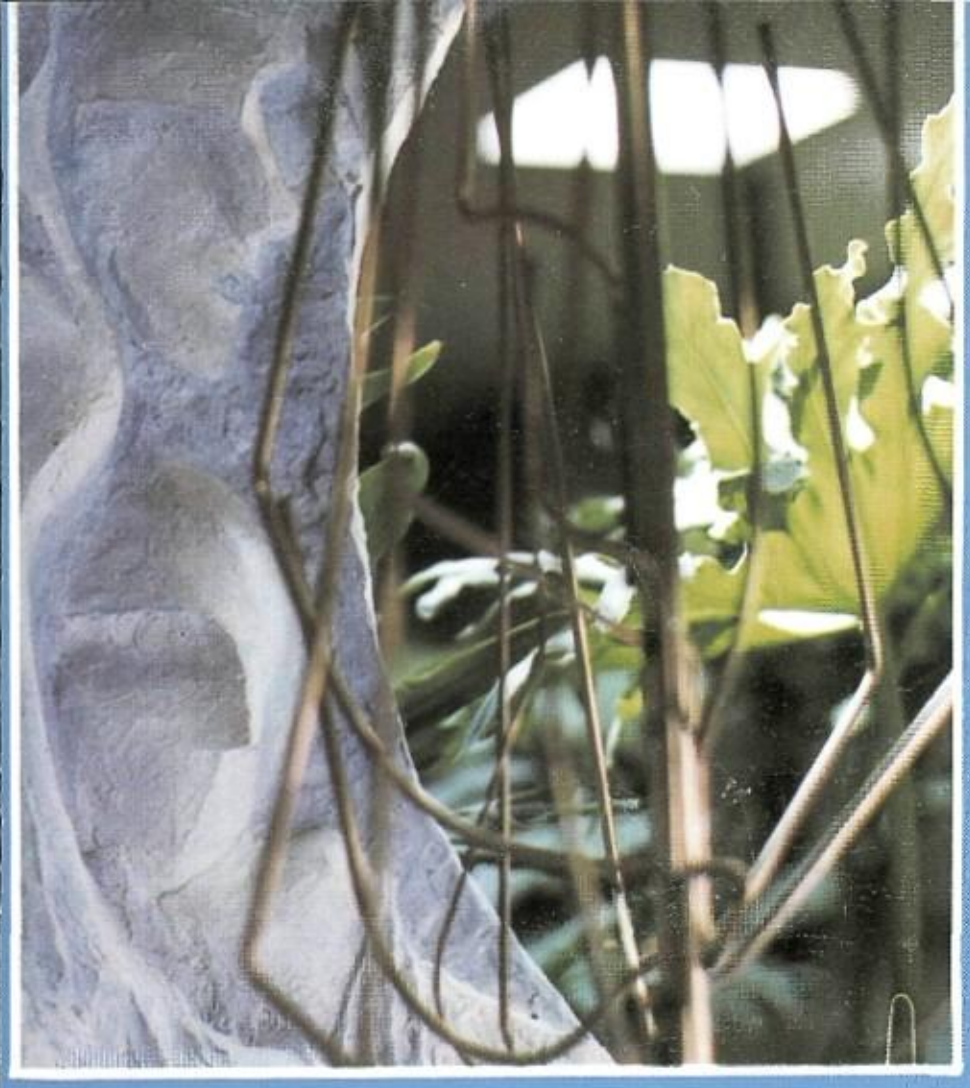
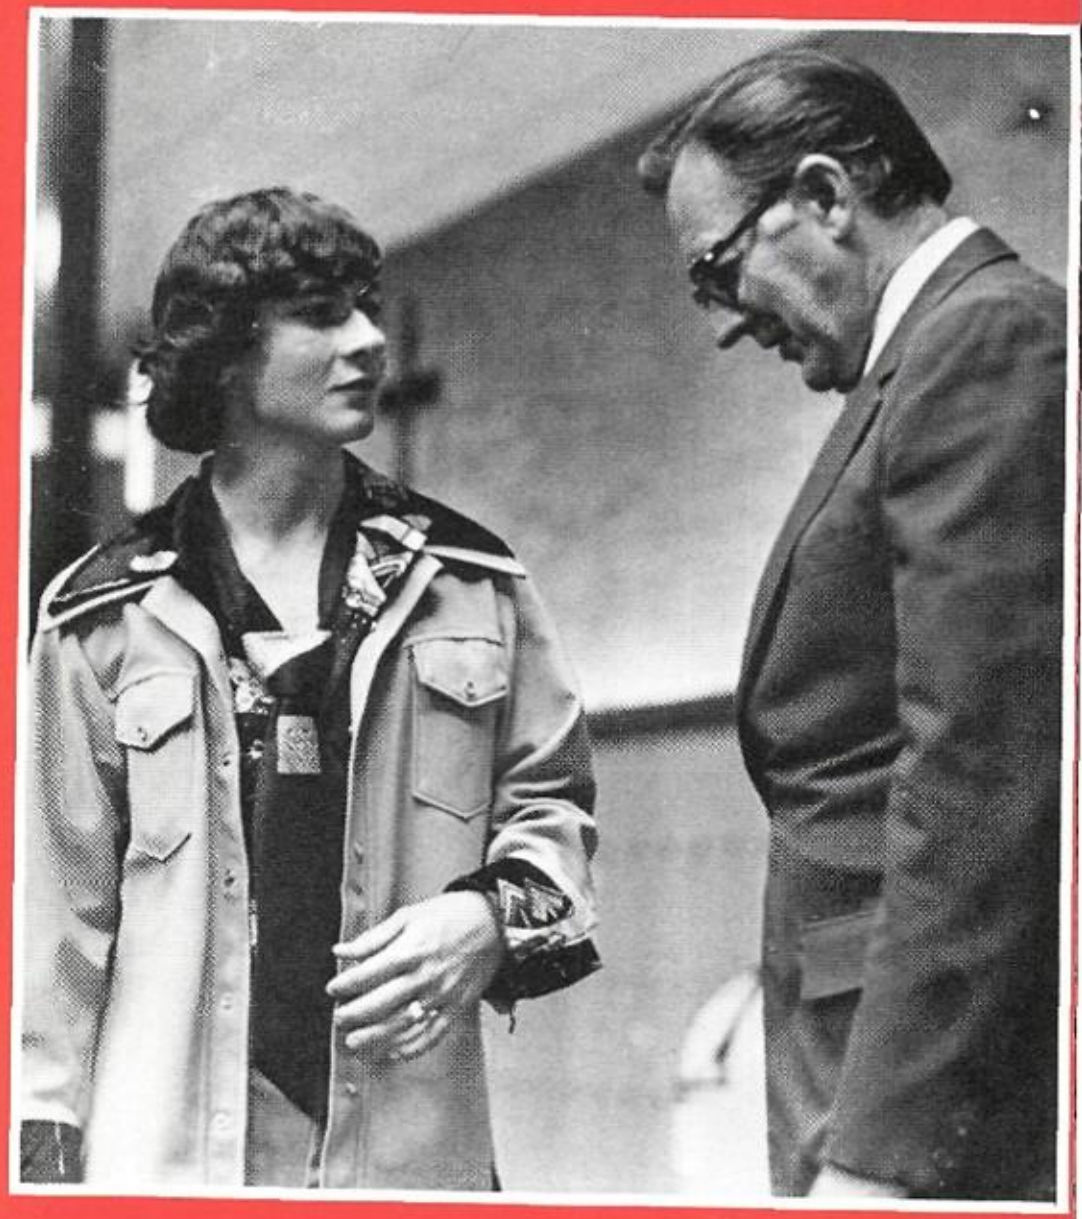
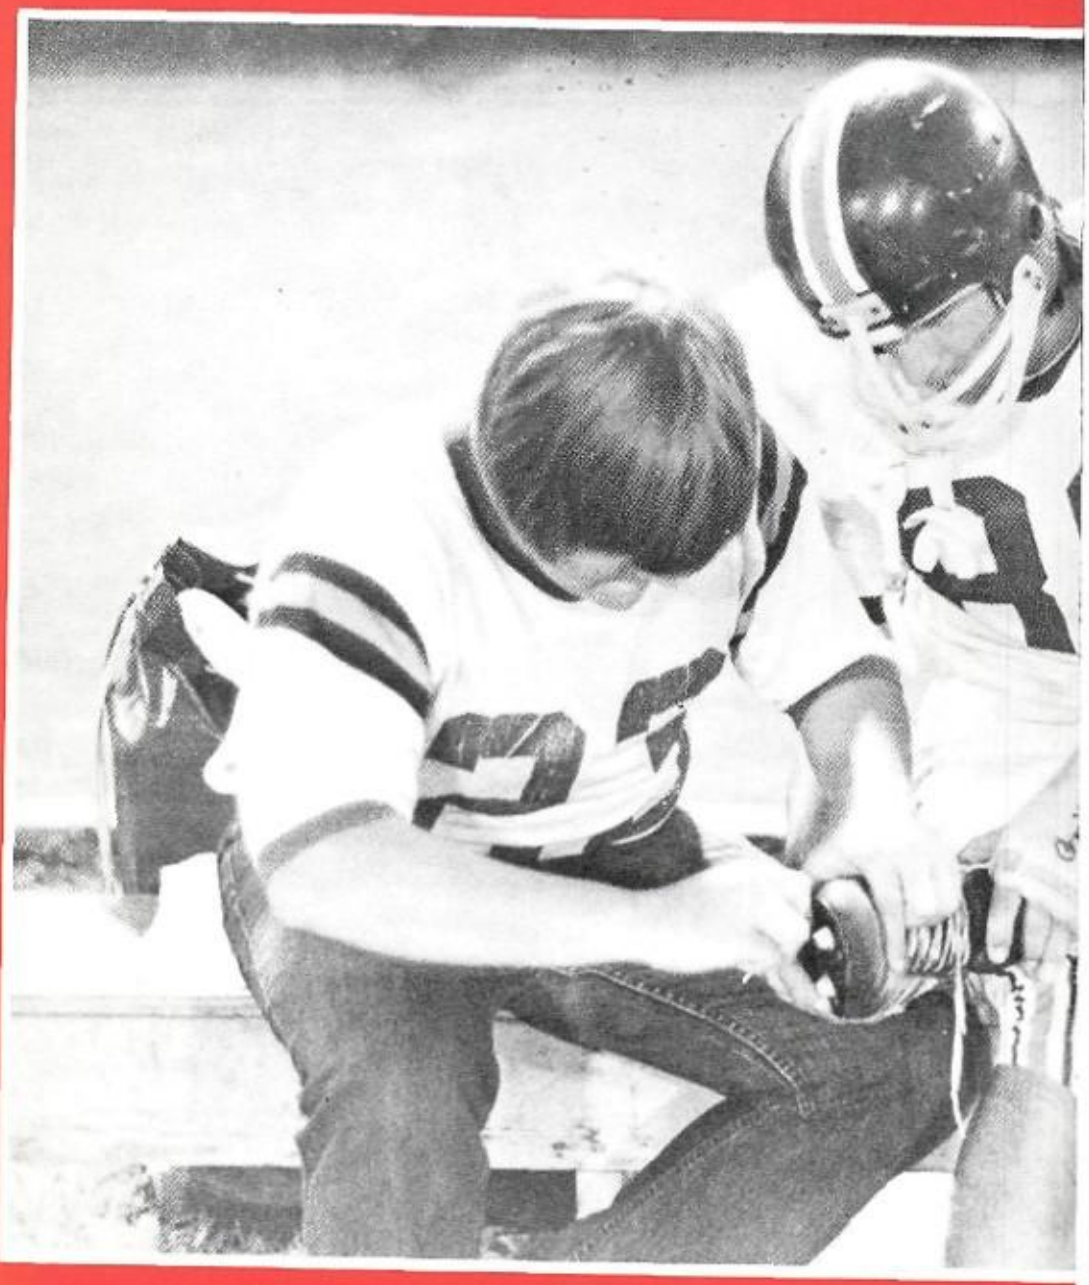
There have been many . . .

Times to experience . . .

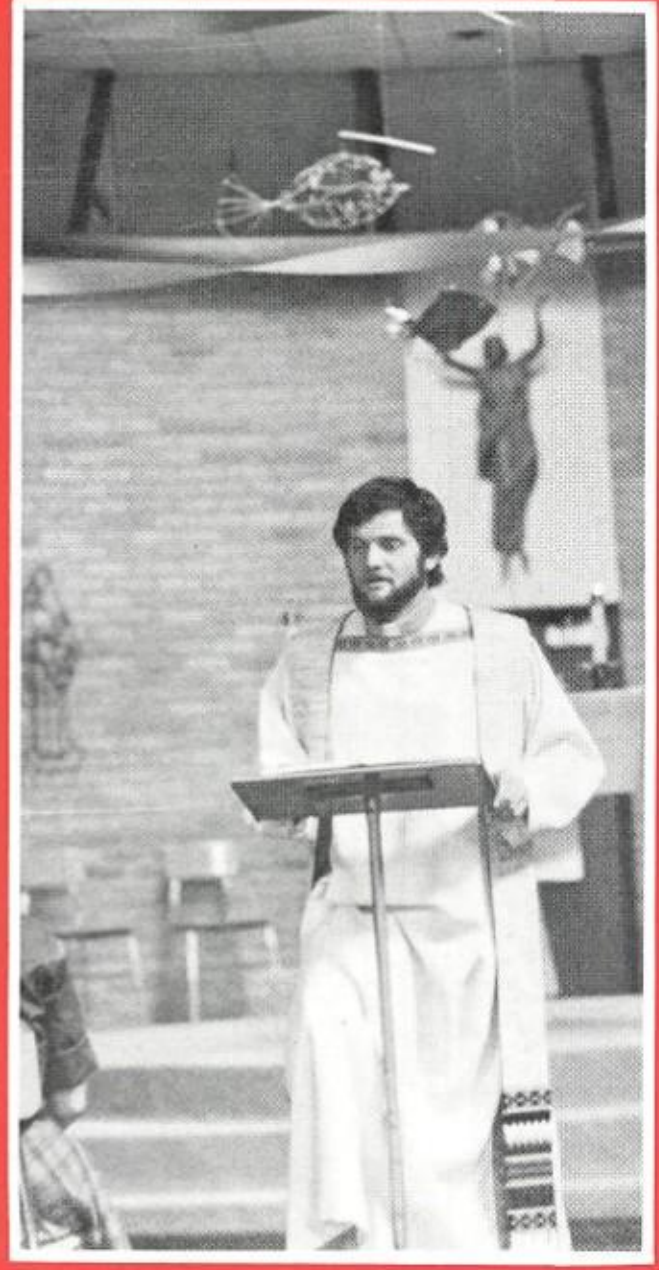


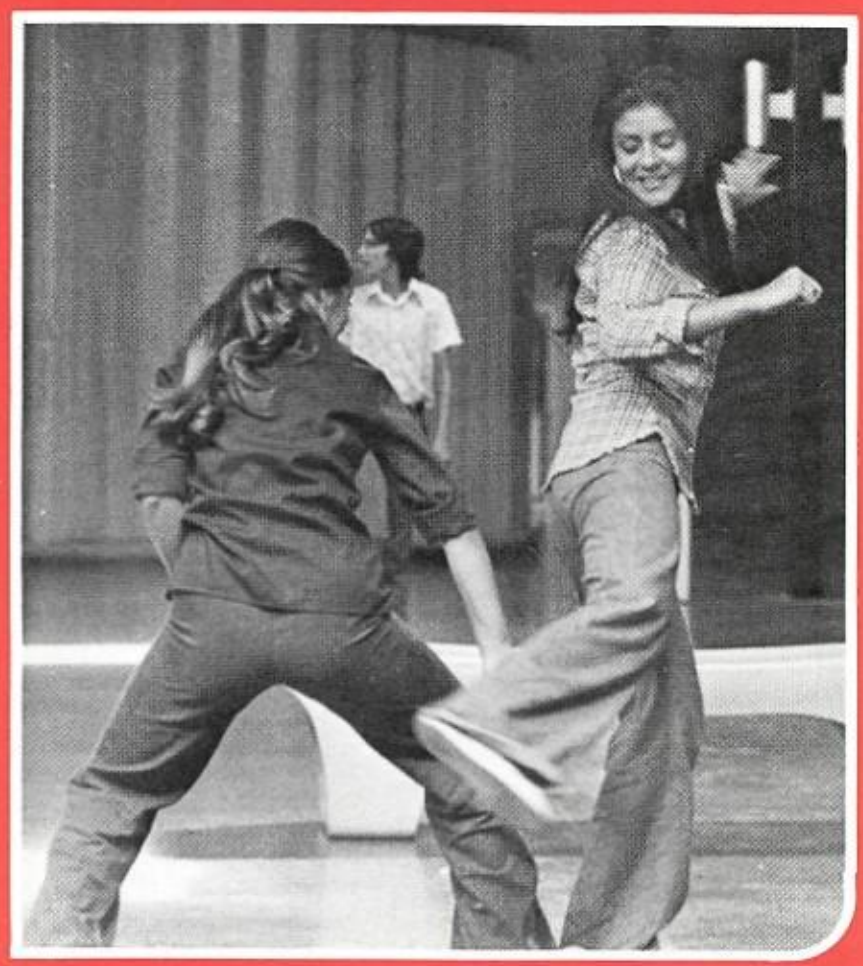
A Time to Reap,
a Time to Sow . . .



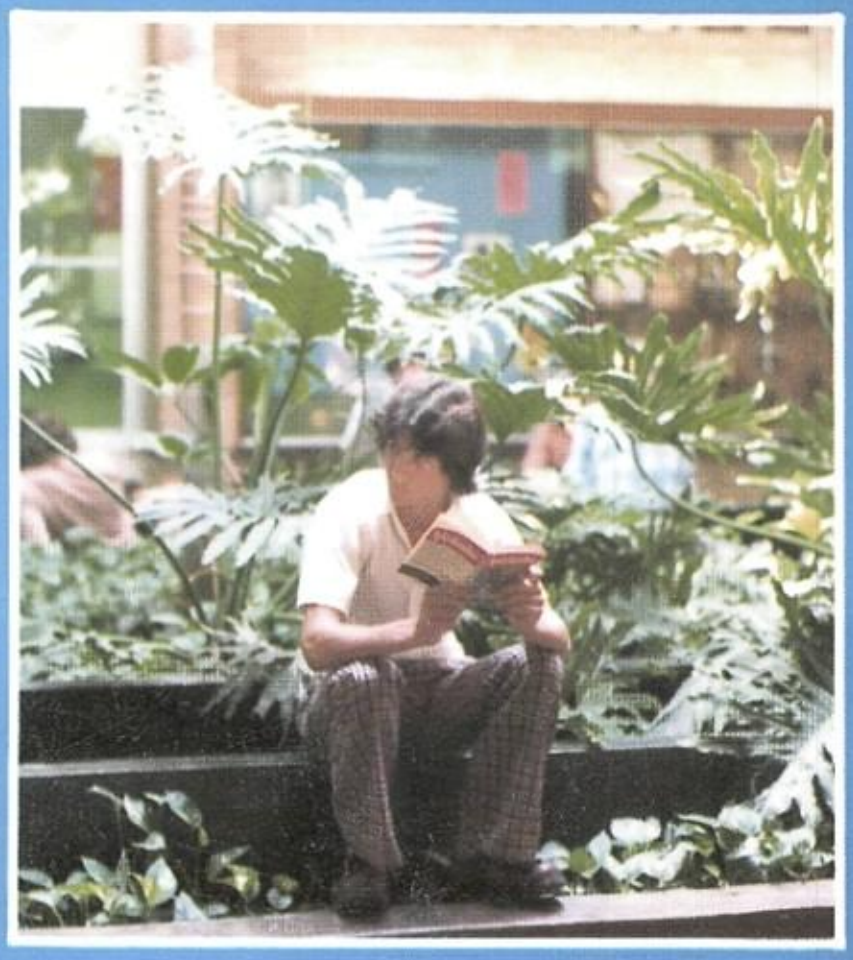


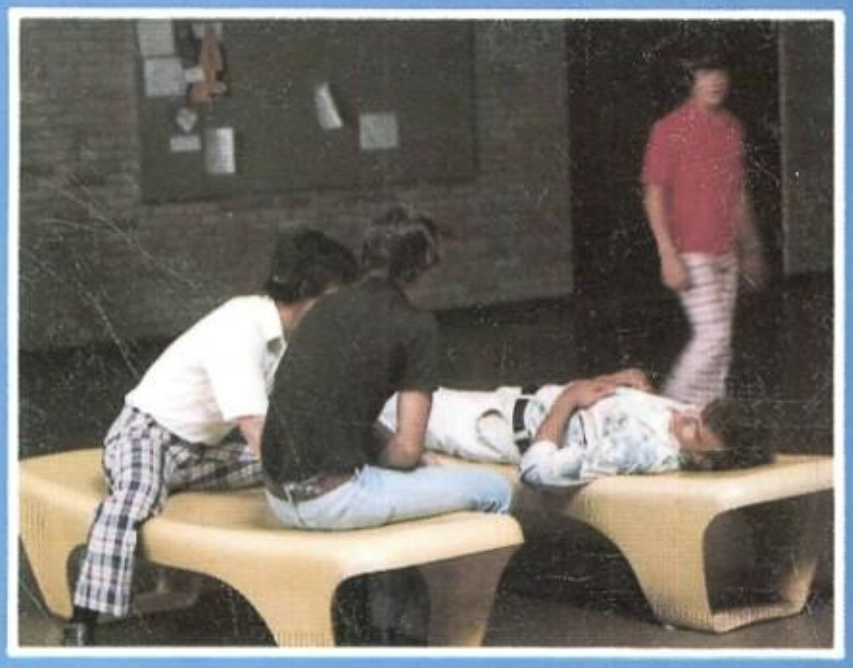
A Time to Break Down,
a Time to Build Up . . .

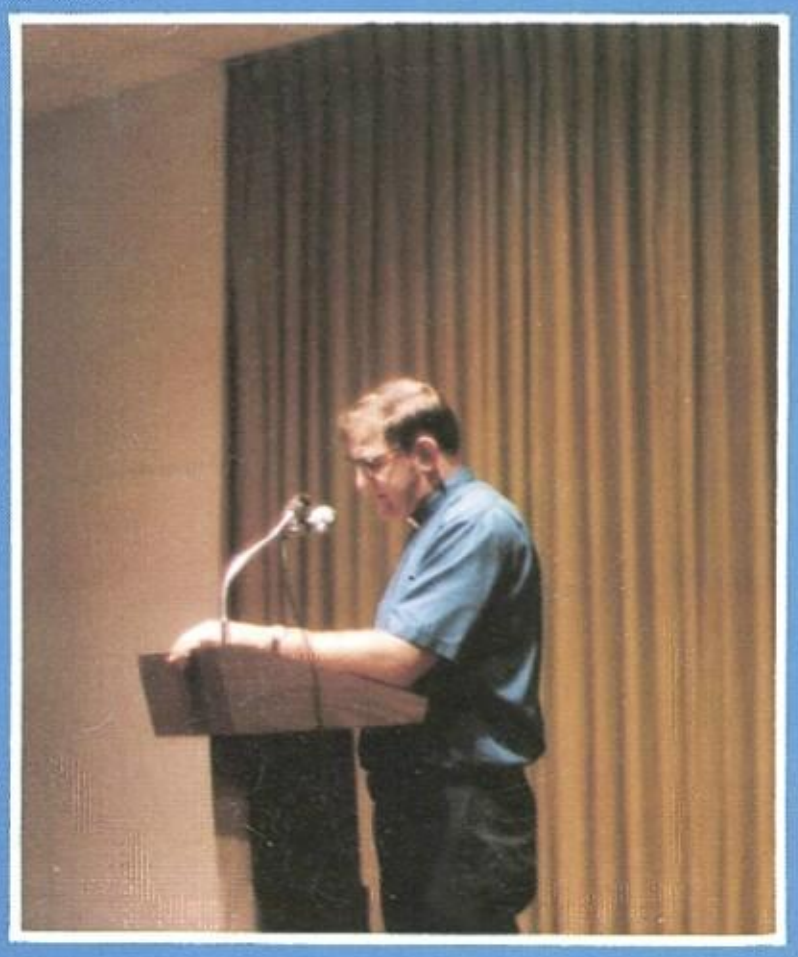


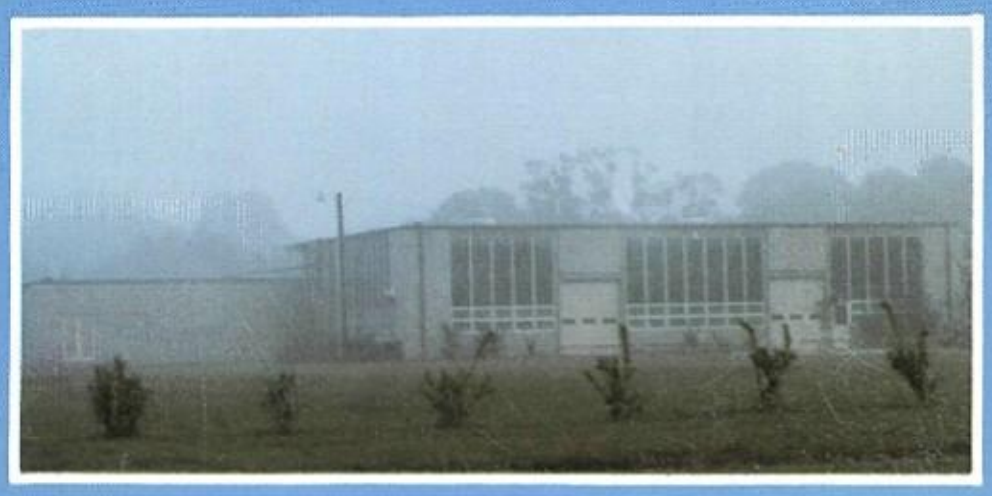


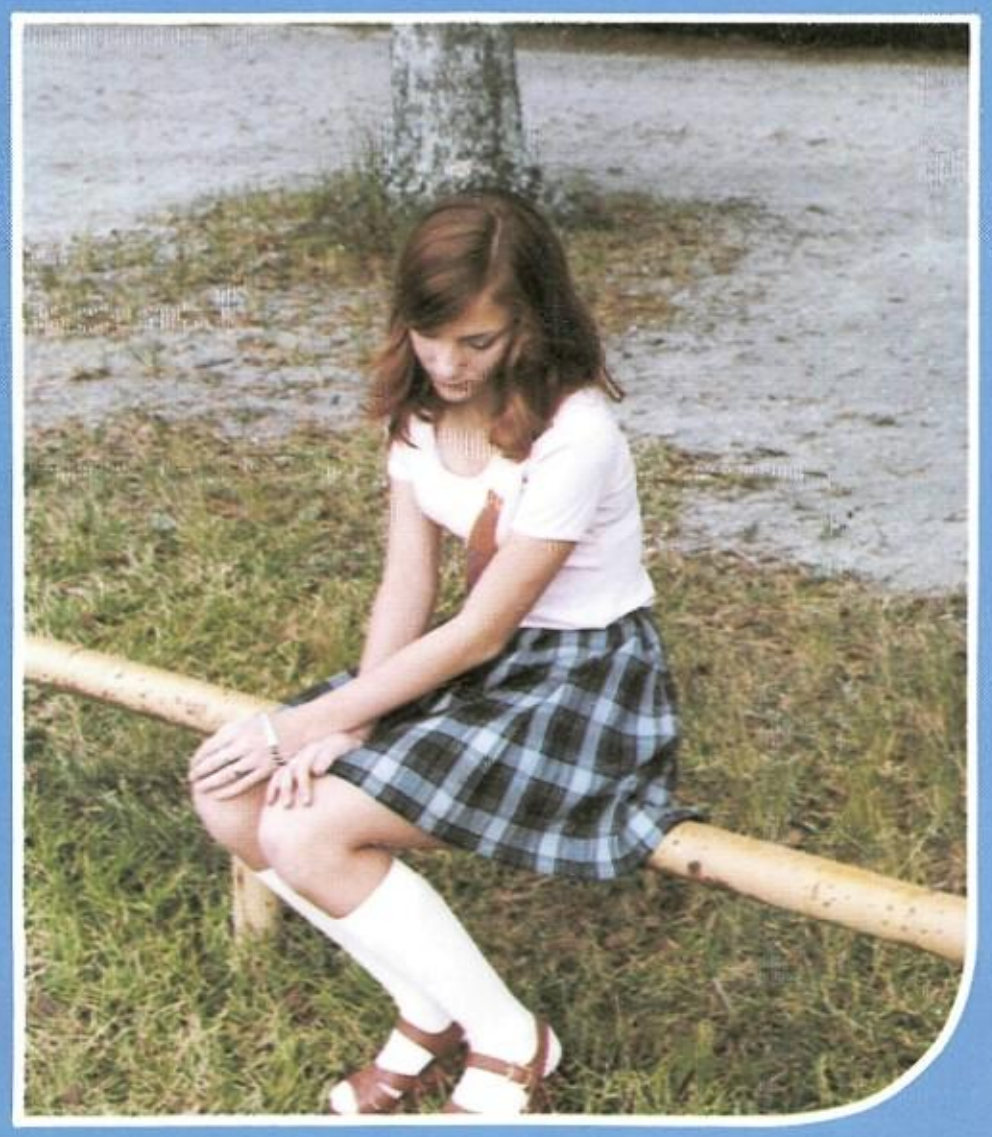
A Time to Keep Silence
a Time to Speak . . .

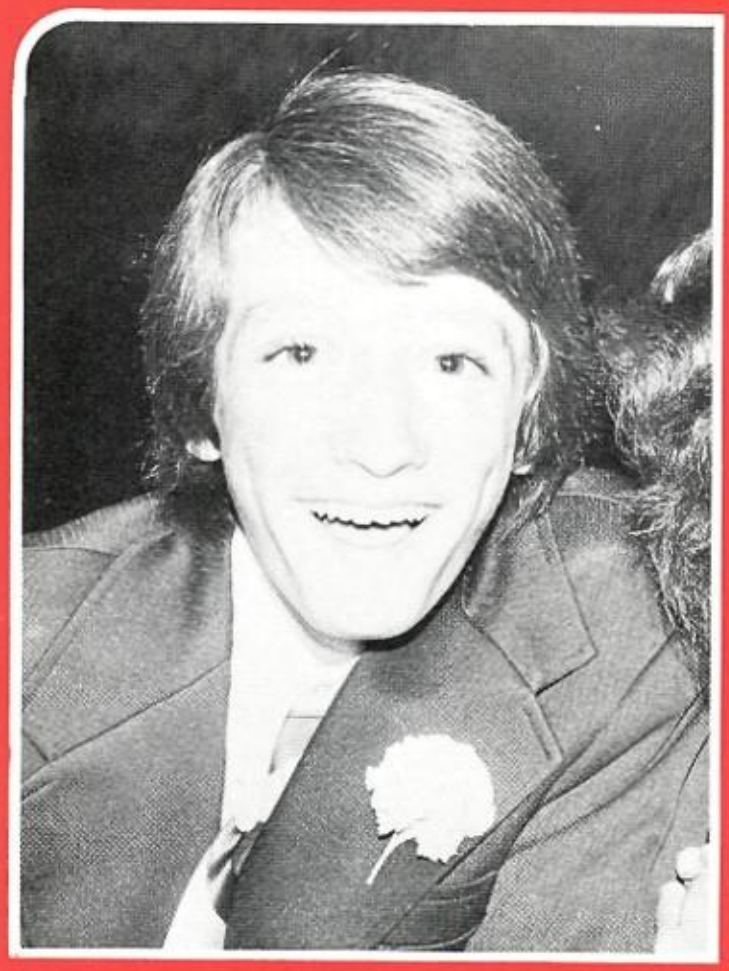


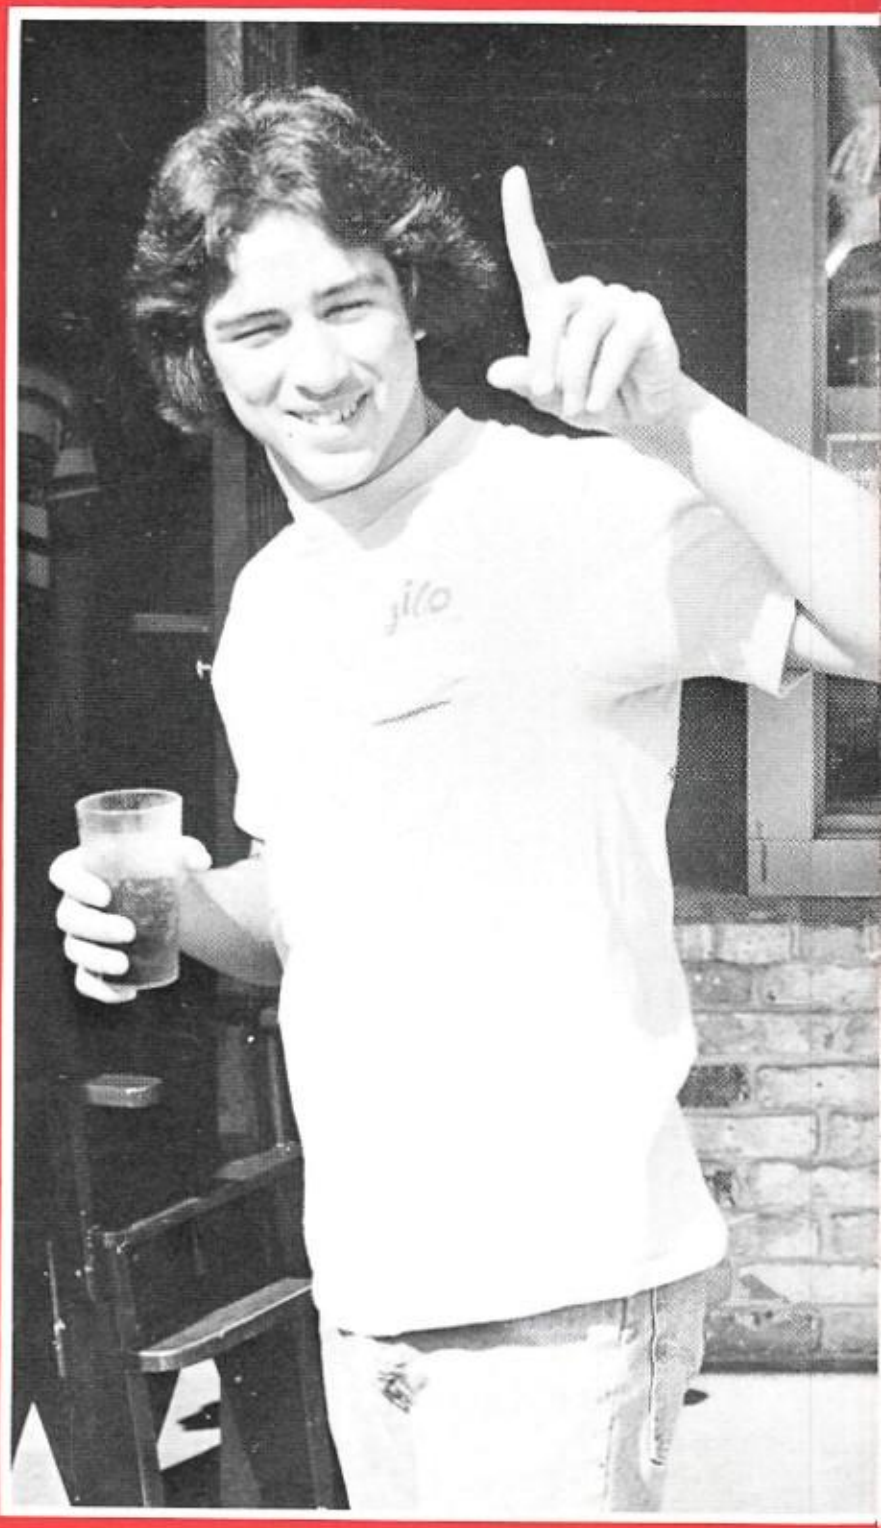


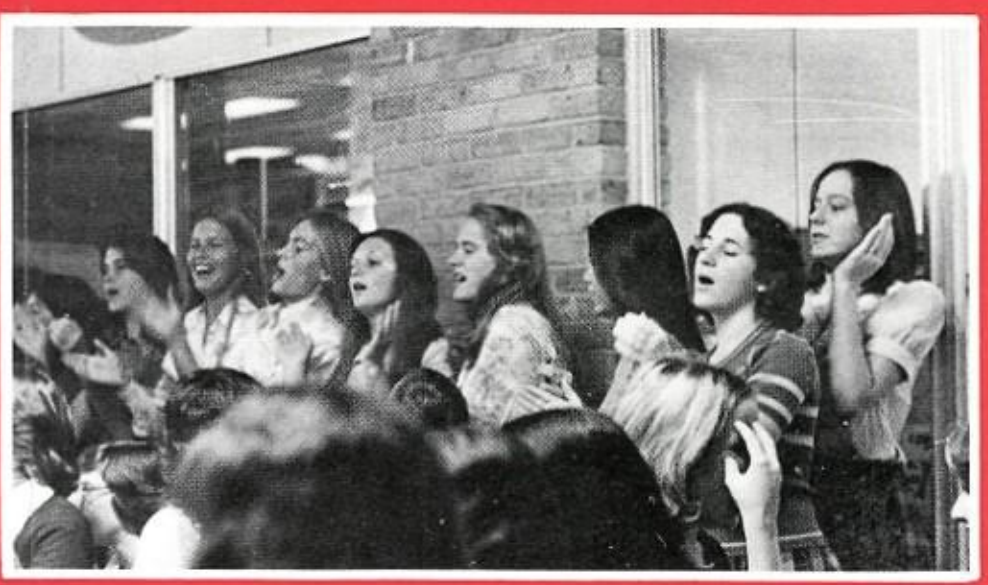












A Time to Weep,

Mr. Vernon Keating, Principal

May I first extend my congratulations to the "Spectre" staff for their fine accomplishment. They have certainly managed to capture the "spirit" of '76 on St. Louis campus. Wherever your path may lead you in the years to come, I hope you will always have fond memories of days well spent and be highly rewarded for your worthy endeavors.

Mr. Yandle, sponsor

Student Council strove to bring more student involvement into St. Louis. In some ways they were very successful but, as with everything, they had to depend on the willingness of students to get involved and that is always a big struggle. Things seem hopeful; it seemed that more were involved this year and it seemed most of those who took the time were able to get much accomplished. The Spectre would like to congratulate all those who put in long hours at meetings and sub-meetings; those who worried when no one else would; and those whose work may never be recognized.

Cheerleaders

The Saint Cheerleaders led the school in high spirits in 75-76. The cheerleaders started the year off by winning first place at Northwestern State University Cheerleading Camp. The squad, headed by Theresa Romero, lead the school in pep rallies, hosted poster parties, and led the spectators at all the sports events cheering the Mighty Saints to victory.

The Library Club highlighted it's year with both honors and service. While going about its regular activities, the club captured a state office at the Louisiana Teenage Librarian's Association Convention, and took time to collect books for the children's ward at St. Patrick's Hospital.

Theresa Lowery found her library time split between the club activities and working in her new position as state historian for LTLA. Everyone joined together to complete such tasks as collecting paper to be recycled and making bulletin boards to inform the school of books available.

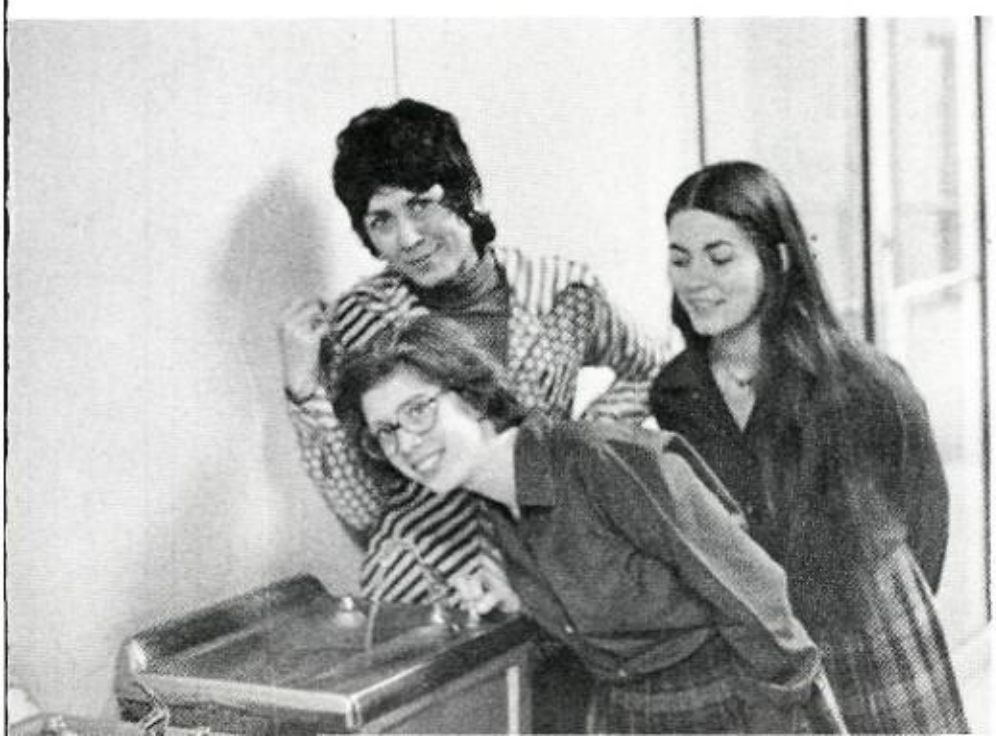
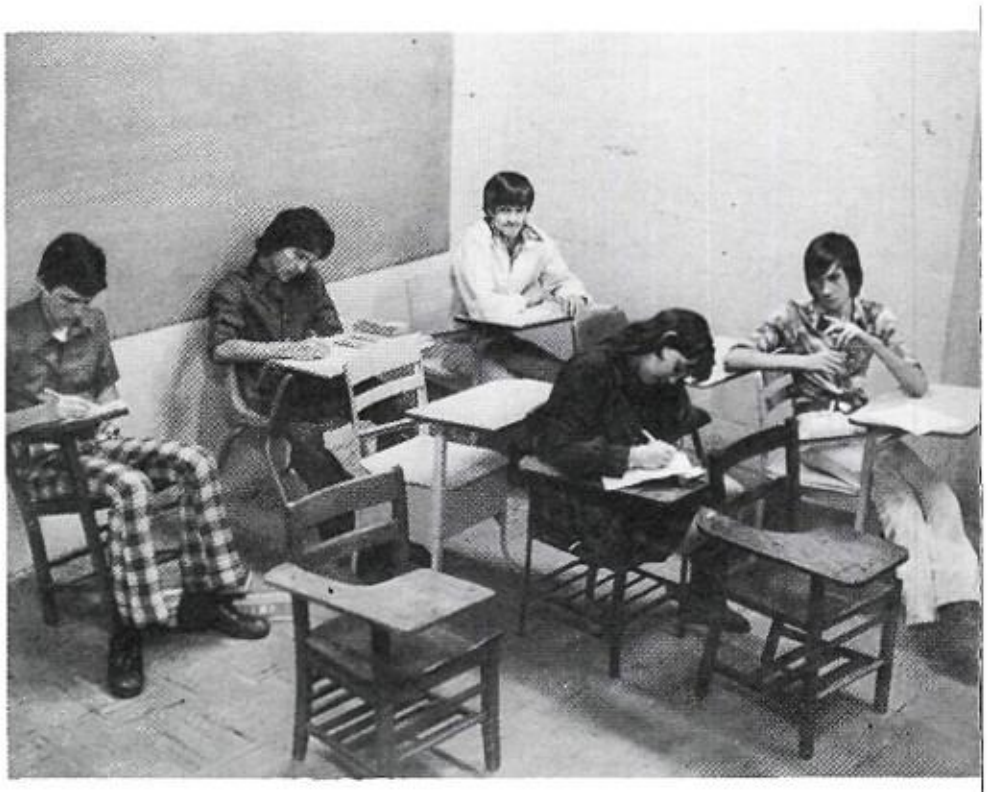
Drama Club



The Drama Club, consisting of many talented students in the field of acting, presented plays to the students of St. Louis. The Drama Club donated their time and talent to the Variety Show at the Harvest Festival. This year the Drama Club also presented a Christmas play for the student body, and performed the same play at McNeese. The Choral Reading competition was another of the many activities accomplished by the Drama Club in the 1975-76 school year.



Newspaper

The newspaper provided the students with up-to-date news, and gossip around school. Operating under Miss Dunn, Cindy Trahan, editor, and Mary K. Robinson assisstant editor, the staff produced a fantastic paper throughout the year. Using a few new innovations, like real news print and pictures occasionally, the paper pioneered into a new era of journalism at St. Louis.

Senior Members

This year's French Club reached a membership of 90 students. The members seemed to be enthusiastic and made all the planned events a great success. This year's club took a trip to St. Martinville and New Iberia to learn more about French culture. They decorated for the Homecoming Dance and raised money at their annual French Dance. Due to this large success they were able to buy supplies for their French classes, and held a French Club banquet at the end of the year. Once again the French Club proved to be one of the most active and popular clubs in the school.

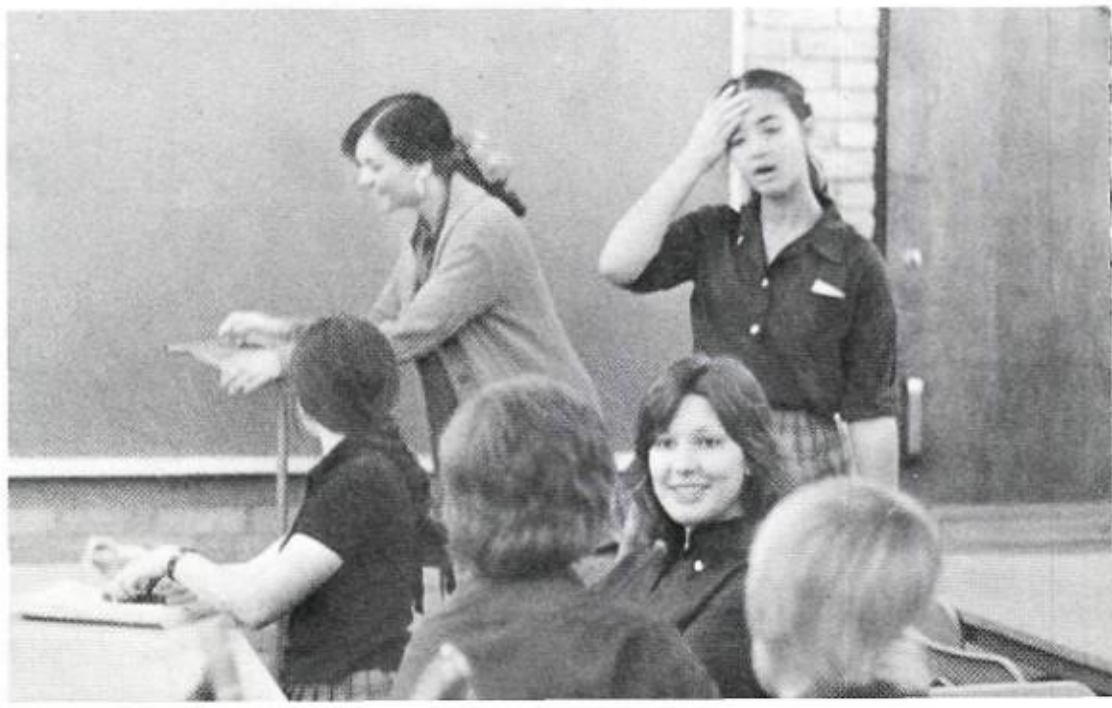
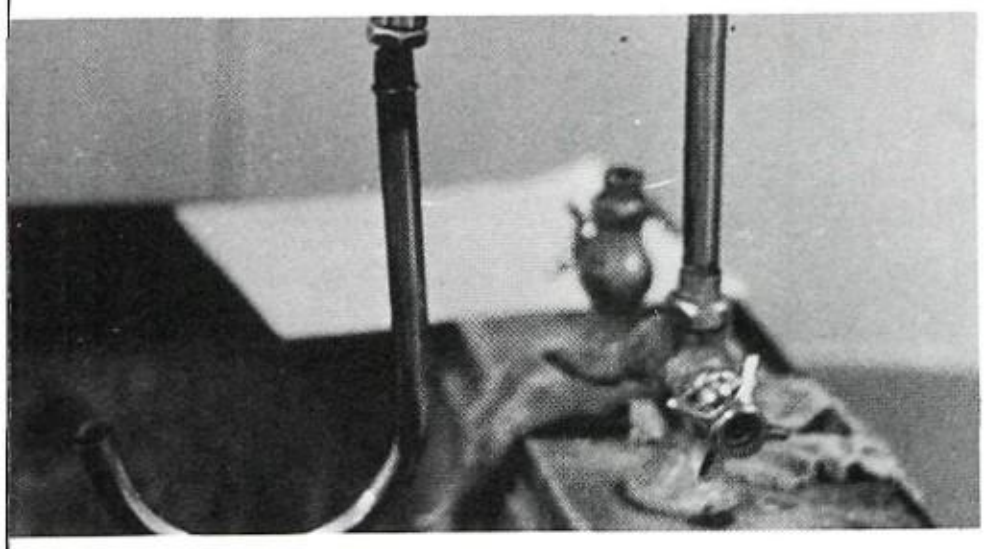
Spanish Club

Under the leadership of Mrs. Frances Jones and a fantastic slate of officers, the Spanish Club enjoyed another successful year. This year the Spanish Club participated in the Homecoming Parade and had a "Posada" to celebrate the Christmas season. They also are planning a "secret special trip" (?) and an end of the year Fiesta. The unique features of this year's club are the unity enjoyed by the members and the organization that the officers provided.





This year, the St. Louis Science Club was under the direction of two sponsors. After the departure of Mrs. Hursey, Mrs. Lendry took the position of Club Sponsor.

Although the club did not go on a field trip, this year was very successful. Everyone got involved with the Science Fair and other activities.

For the first time the club elected a Beau and Belle--Andre Hawkins & Janis Winey.

The 1975-76 Spectre Staff consisted of 13 hard-working people. In September, 8 of those people didn't know a 3-R from a cropper. Therefore, it was the duty of the 5 experienced staffers to teach them everything they knew about putting out a yearbook. This was accomplished by starting from scratch. In almost no time at all, there were 4 girls running the streets to sell ads, and the remainder of the staff "putting out" at school. Devotions, peanut butter cookies, skipping records, staying at school until 11:30, a laughing editor, Dear Miss Taylor, and a great staff MADE our yearbook.

This year, the National Forensic League was endowed with many outstanding members. Nanette Noland, the Pres. -Treas. of the club, was the first person at St. Louis to receive her double ruby twice. The club was very active in speech tournaments all over the state. Here at St. Louis, they hosted a high school speech tournament in November and an elementary speech tournament in May. Angie Gigur and Nanette Noland qualified for the National Catholic Forensic League Tournament held in Detroit. They will represent the Lafayette Diocese.

The Speech Club stayed busy this school year, dropping out of sight on Fridays and weekends to participate in tournaments in many parts of Louisiana and other states. With members in various speaking events and debate, the club brought in a fair share of awards, but did not garnish as many honors as was hoped. Lack of people was a real problem for this year's group, but they still managed to maintain a respectable standing among area schools. The club looks forward to more honors and more, often unrecognized, hard work.

The National Honor Society is an organization which honors outstanding students. Membership into the NHS is the most coveted award that can be given to a high school student. The traits the Society looks for in its members are leadership, scholarship, service, and character.

The National Honor Society taps or pins the new members in February. The Twerp Dance, held on Valentine's Day this year, is sponsored annually by the NHS along with the Student Council.

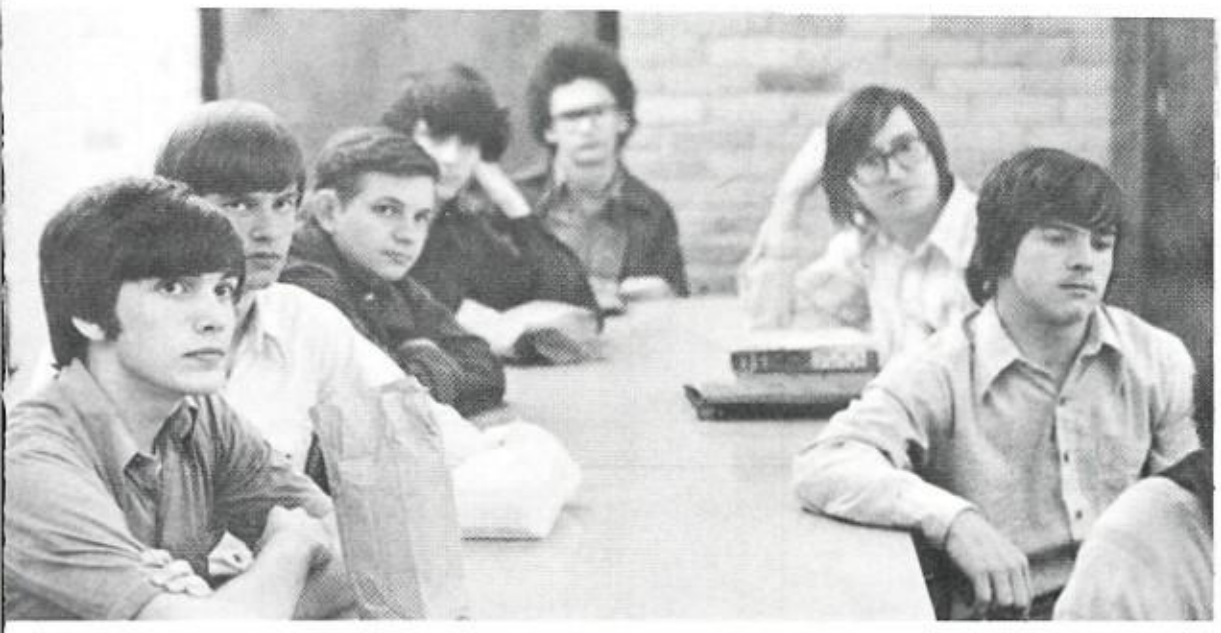
CLC

CLC enjoyed another very successful year under the leadership of their new sponsor, Father Regan. A community was formed as weekly meetings were held for sharing and a little looking into how one goes about being Christian. CLC offered an opportunity to grow in an interior way closer to one's self, to others, and to God. The members shared a very succsseful outing at Pecan Grove in February, and are looking forward to more projects and activities next year.

Key Club



The Key club enjoyed a year of active participation from all members. Lake Charles was the location of the annual tri-state convention for Key Clubbers. The St. Louis Key Club played a vital role in the convention by handling the credential department. Key Clubbers at St. Louis attained more honors than any other Key Club at the convention. Pat Yoder received third place in the oratory contest. James Regan also won third place in the impromptu essay contest. Pat Hicks was a finalist in the talent contest.

The St. Louis Key Club helped in civic service functions. Key Clubbers collected money for both the Heart Fund, and the Mother's March against Birth Defects.

After School Activities

Students from St. Louis had a wide variety of after school activities. Some people liked to sunbathe, do flips at the Racquet Club, and go boat-riding in the lake. Others liked playing putt-putt, music, or just relaxing in a canoe. Still others enjoyed, rather didn't enjoy, getting stopped by an officer . . . I wonder what for? At nite when there was nothing to do, you could always find someone at Huber or Prien Park, the Keg or The Hungry Knight . . . and there was always the Burger Chef on Ryan!

Volleyball Team

The Saint Louis Volleyball team completed another successful year during 1975-1976. With their serves, sets, and spikes, along with their enthusistic school spirit, the team was lead to many victories. Included in these victories was the third place honor they received at the Regional Volleyball Tournament.

There were sixteen girls on the softball team this year. The whole team was very energetic all during the season. They never gave up. Their best game was against Westlake when the victory score showed St. Louis 39-Westlake 16. All the schools that St. Louis played against were Quad A. We hope the team next year has as much spirit as it did this year.

Couste's Message; 1975 Football

The 1975 football team finished the season with a 7-4 overall record. We were 5-1 in district competition. That was enough to put us in a tie for 1st place position. With the luck of a coin flip we earned a spot at the State Title. We were eliminated in the quarter-finals by Kinder, 32 to 34, in an emotion-packed game. The team showed much character and determination from everyone on the squad, especially the Seniors. After the first four games, we found ourselves with a 1 and 3 record. However, the team rose to the occasion and won the last six games, propelling us into the playoffs. I would like to thank all the athletes on this years squad for their effort and dedication to the program.

Coach Finley, Head Coach

1975-1976 Basketball at St. Louis was one of many Accomplishments.

It produced the first winning season of St. Louis' short history; 14 wins, 13 losses. The third place finish in district competition was also the highest ever. It just so happened that the two teams that tied for first place ended up as state champion and runner up.

To this successful season, the credit goes to the leadership and hard work of all the players. But especially to Wendell, Leonard, Jimmy, Andre, Bobby, Kevin and Chuck, the Seniors of 75-76. These are the ones who deserve a slap on the back because it never could have happened without them.

To the team as a whole, Coach Shaver and I want to say Thanks and at the same time offer to the seniors of 76-77, the challenge to exceed the accomplishments of the Basketball Team of 1975-1976.

Class AA State Runnerup

The St. Louis Track Team had one of it's best years this season. The Team won the All Catholic Track meet, the B. S. Walker Relays, the District Track meet, the Regional Track meet and were the Class AA State Runnerups. The Track Team had two State Champions, The 880 Relay Team and a shot putter. We had two second places in our 440 relay team and pole vaulting and a third place javelin thrower. Our two relay teams, shot putter, and pole vaulter were invited to the NORD Meet of Champions. The St. Louis Distance Runners also did well this season. They won the District Cross Country title for the third straight year and the state cross country title for the second year in a row. This successful season can be attributed to the leadership of the seniors; the willingness to work together for a goal. The young team members, who came out and tried.

The 1977 track season looks to be better and more successful because of the work of our young track men this year.

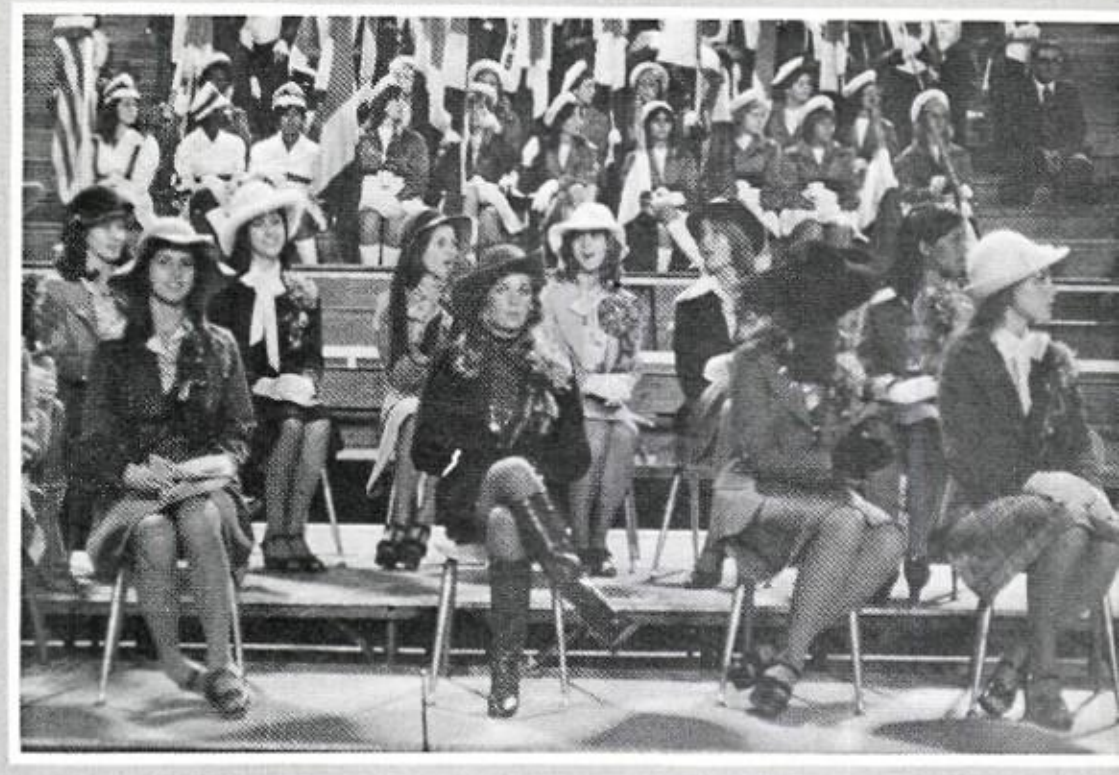
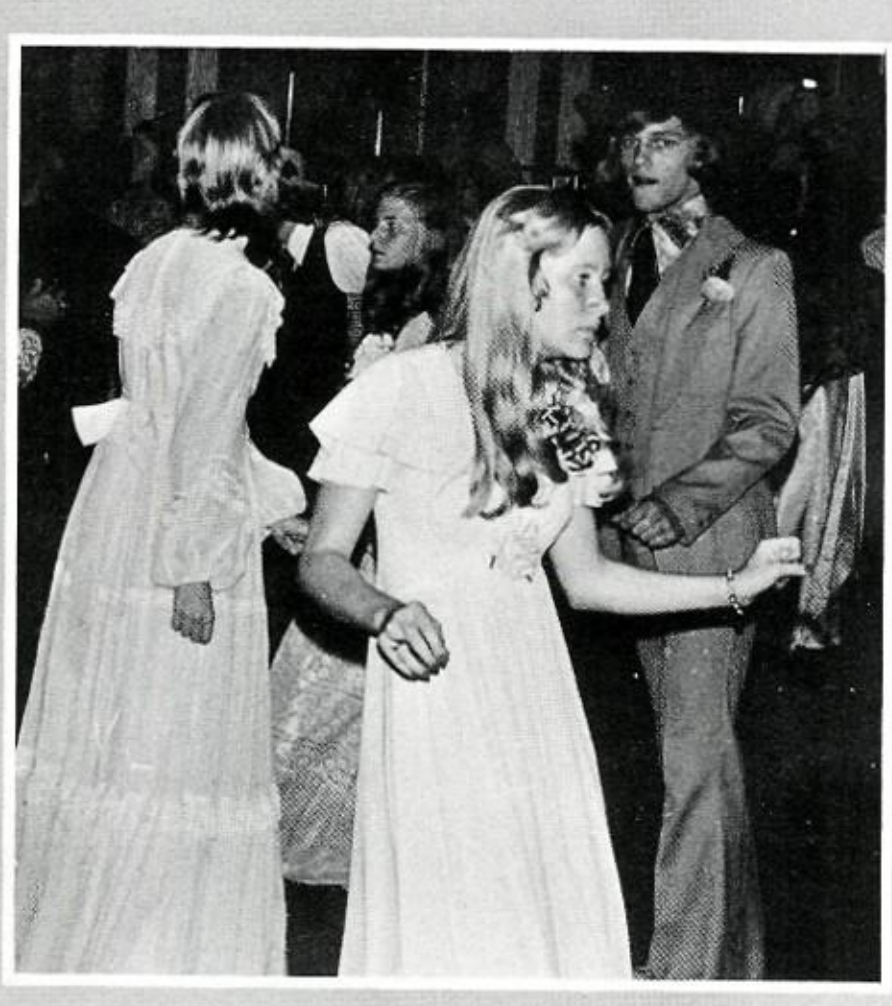
Homecoming

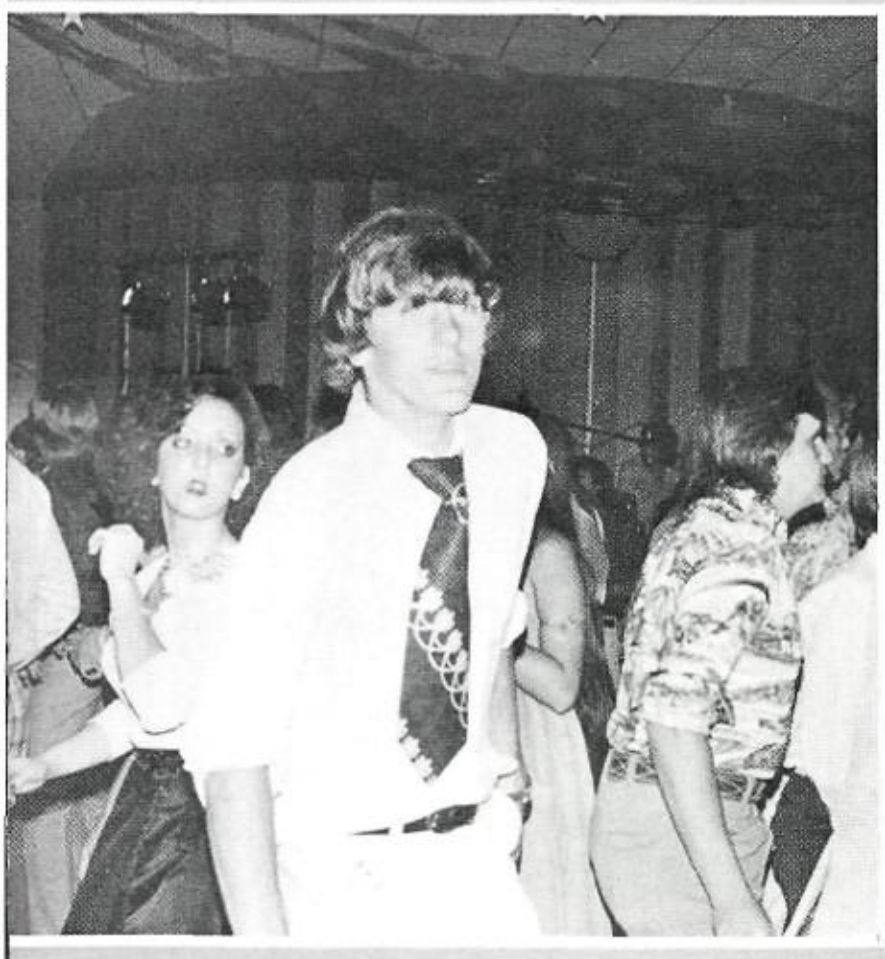
It didn't take long for the spirit of Homecoming to spread through the school. Things started with nomination of court as the school elected 6 seniors and 5 juniors to serve on Homecoming Court. This year's pep rally followed the usual agenda of competitive cheering, presentation of court and encouraging words from football players and coaches. To add to the excitement a Homecoming Parade was held beginning at St. Louis and voyaging on to LaGrange football stadium. Each class and a few clubs spent long hours in the weeks before the parade becoming acquainted with crepe paper, chicken wire, and glue. All this effort went into the different floats and decorated cars that made the parade such a success. The Sophomore class was awarded the distinction of best float. Their theme was "Bury the Broncos."

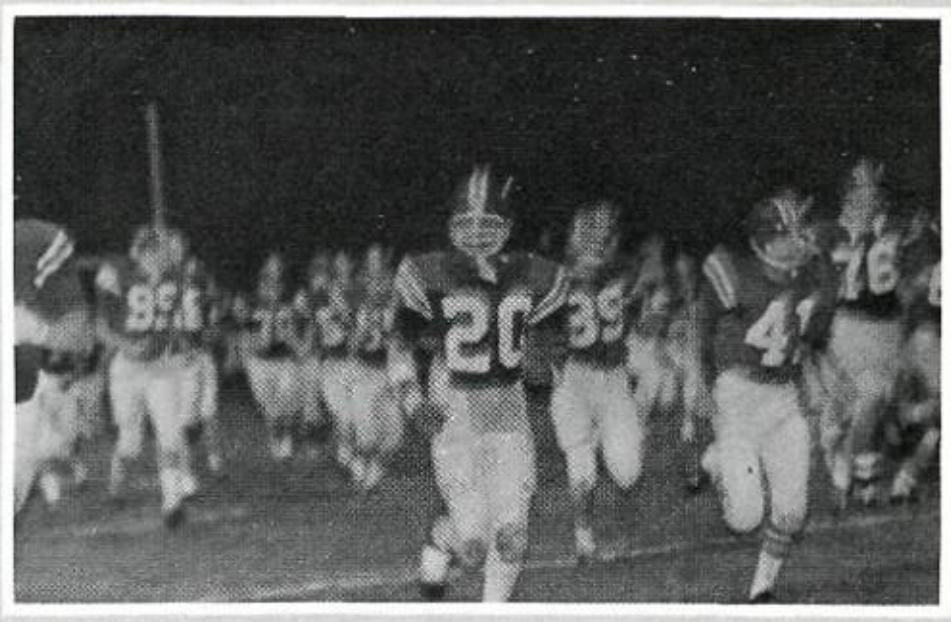
In spite of all the fun and excitement, there was one group that took it all seriously- the football players. As Coach Couste explained to his players -- "If we lose the game, the rest of the activities will lose their purpose." The players must have listened well as they acheived a 27 to 20 victory over Sam Houston.

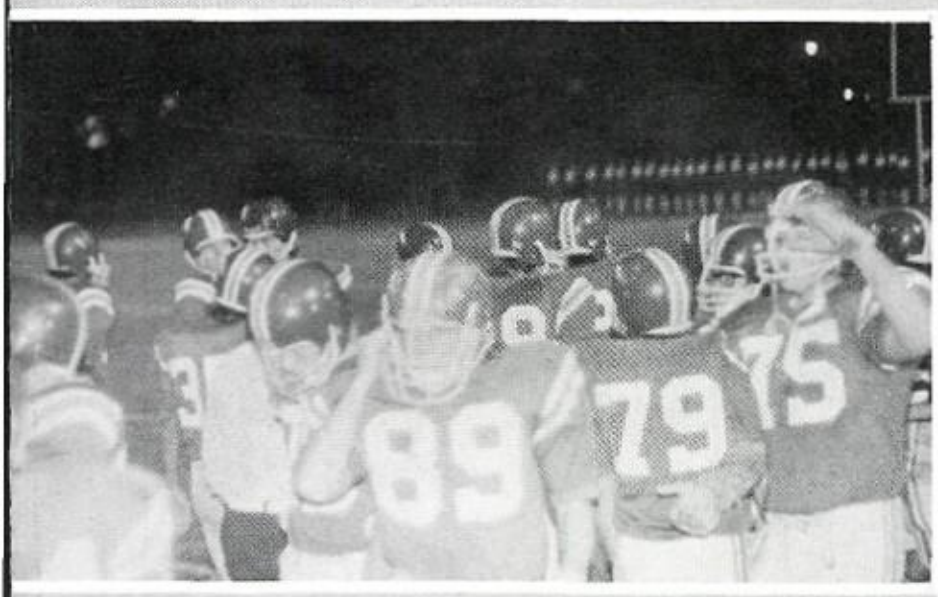
The perfect end to a perfect Homecoming is the victory dance as the St. Louis students celebrated to the music of Bacon.

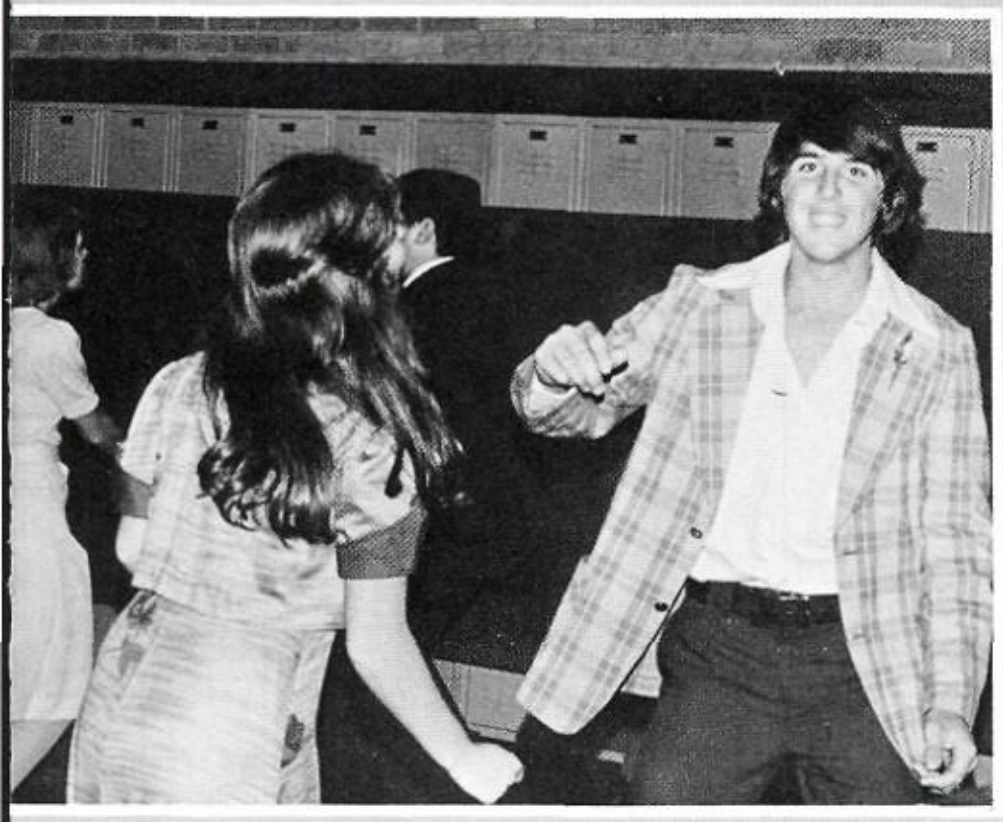












Mardi Gras Dance

Sweethearts and masques filled the school to make the annual "Twerp" Dance a success. Reigning over the festivities were Queen Cammie of the House of Moreno and King Patrick of the House of Yoder.

Each year if, the girls get up the "nerve" to ask the guys, then there is a sell-out crowd. And the girls which always pull through again made it possible for the dance to be a success.

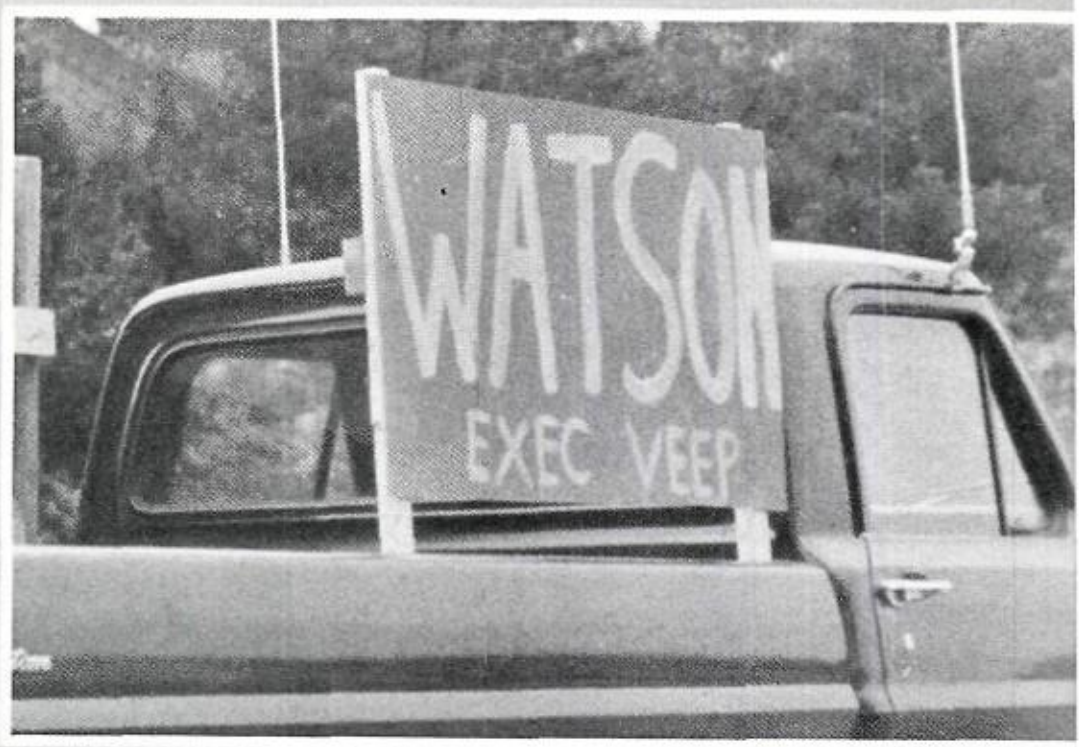
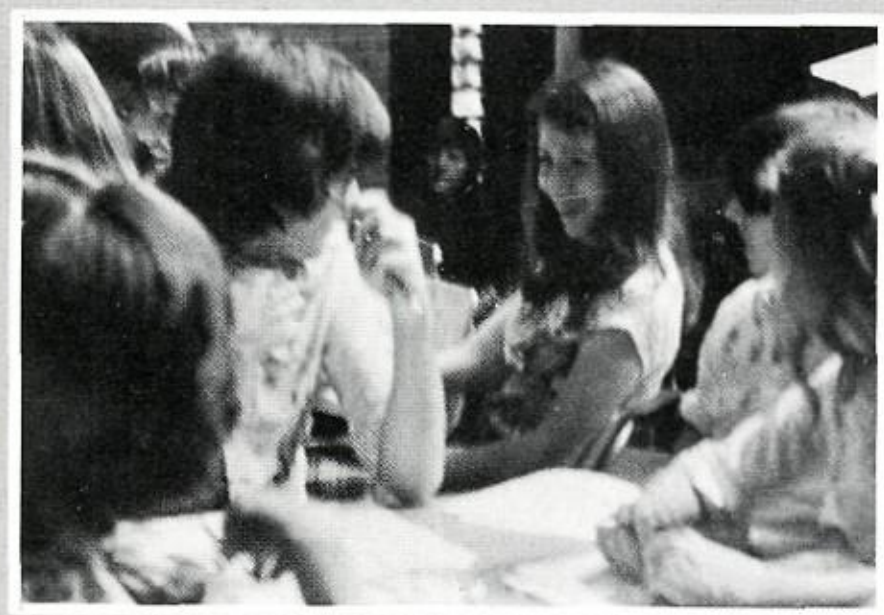
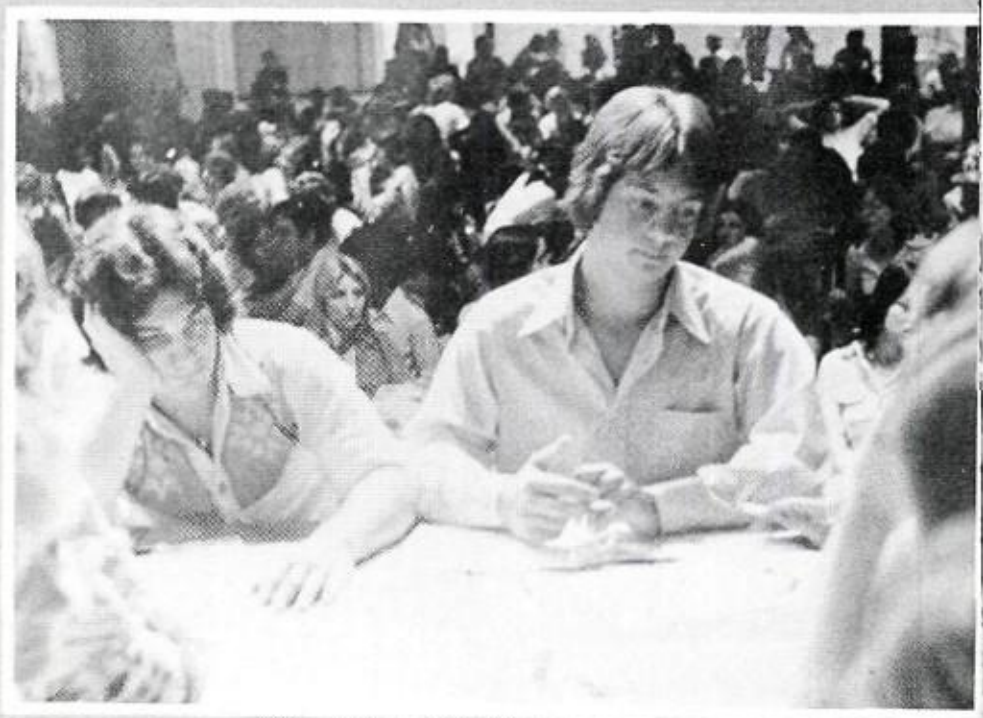
Student Council Elections

St. Louis expressed it's democratic spirit in student council election held to elect the executive officers of the Student Council. Delegates from each of the four classes caucused and voted for the candidates of different offices. Amid much class pride each group expressed its voting intentions while reminding the rest of the school that their particular class was #1.







French Dance

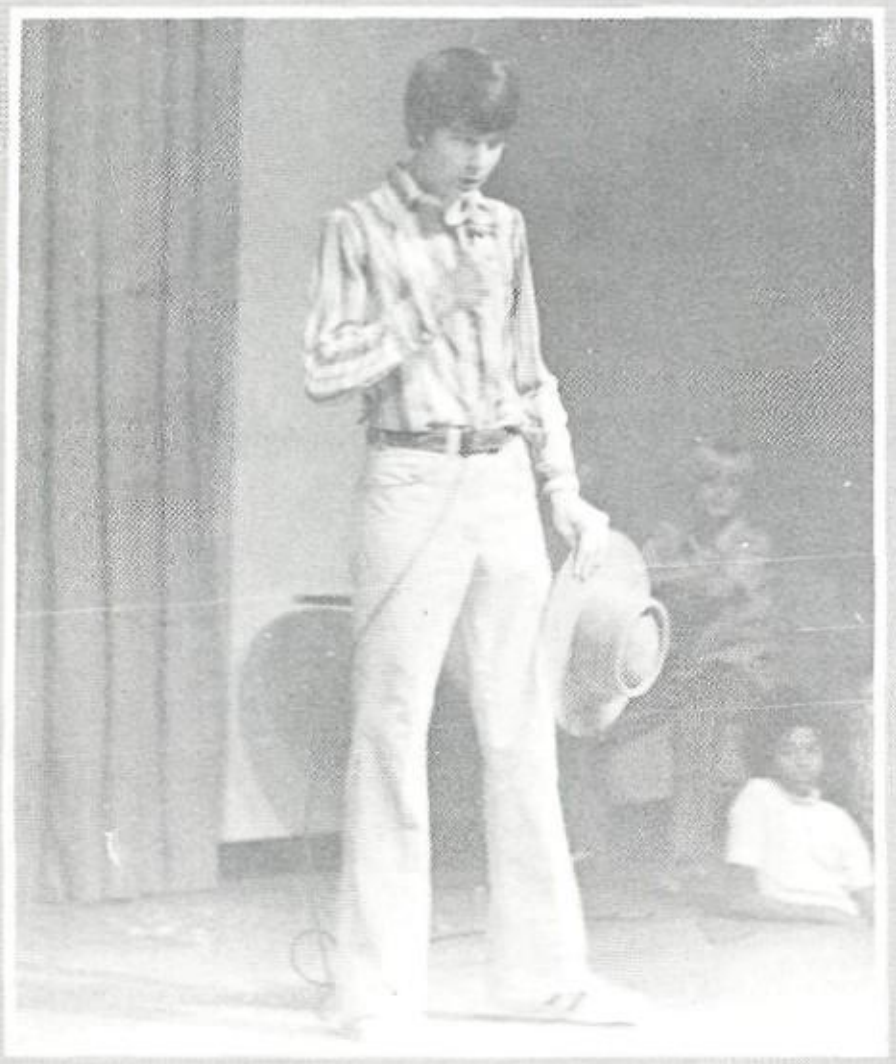
The French Dance continued to be one of the most waited-for events of St. Louis' school year. This year everyone enjoyed doing the two-step to the music of the Sundown Playboys.

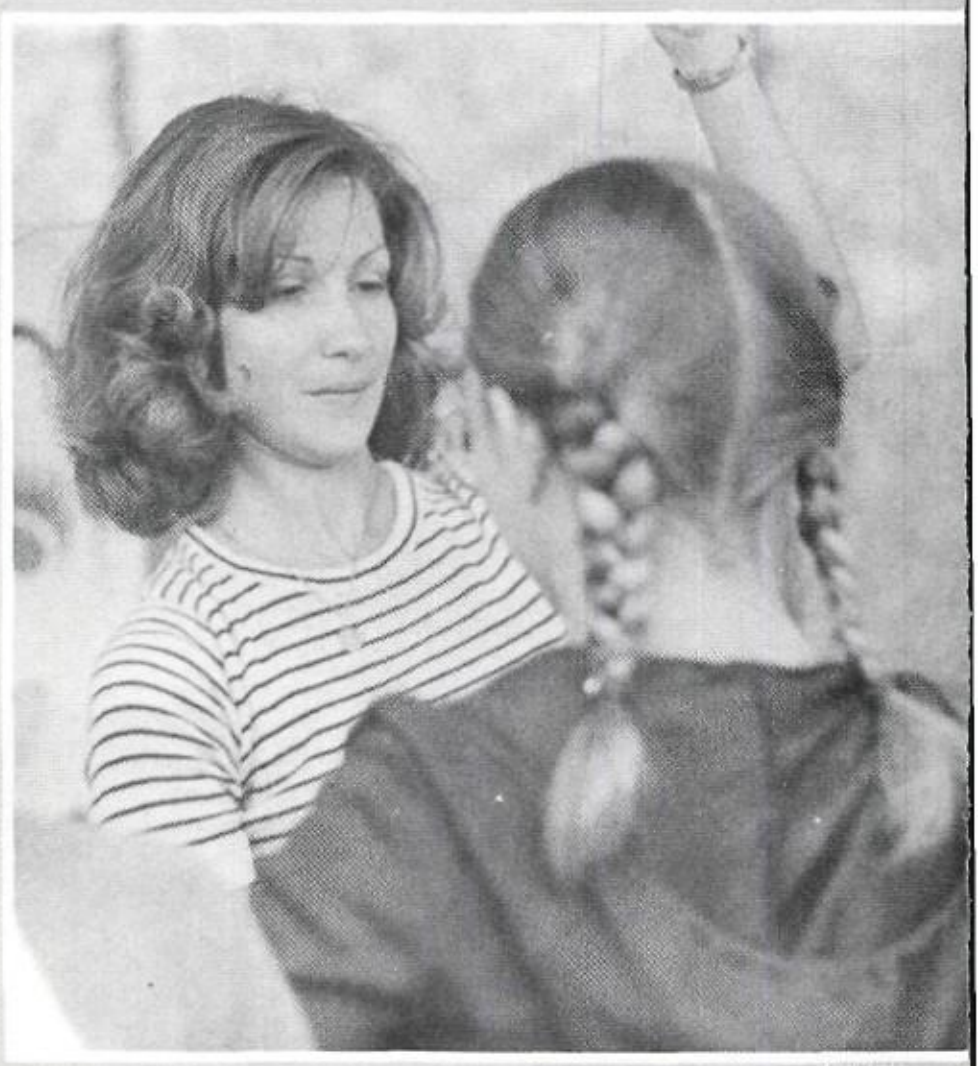
Joe LeBlanc and Tina Courville distinguished themselves as being outstanding dancers at the "ole two-step".

Harvest Festival

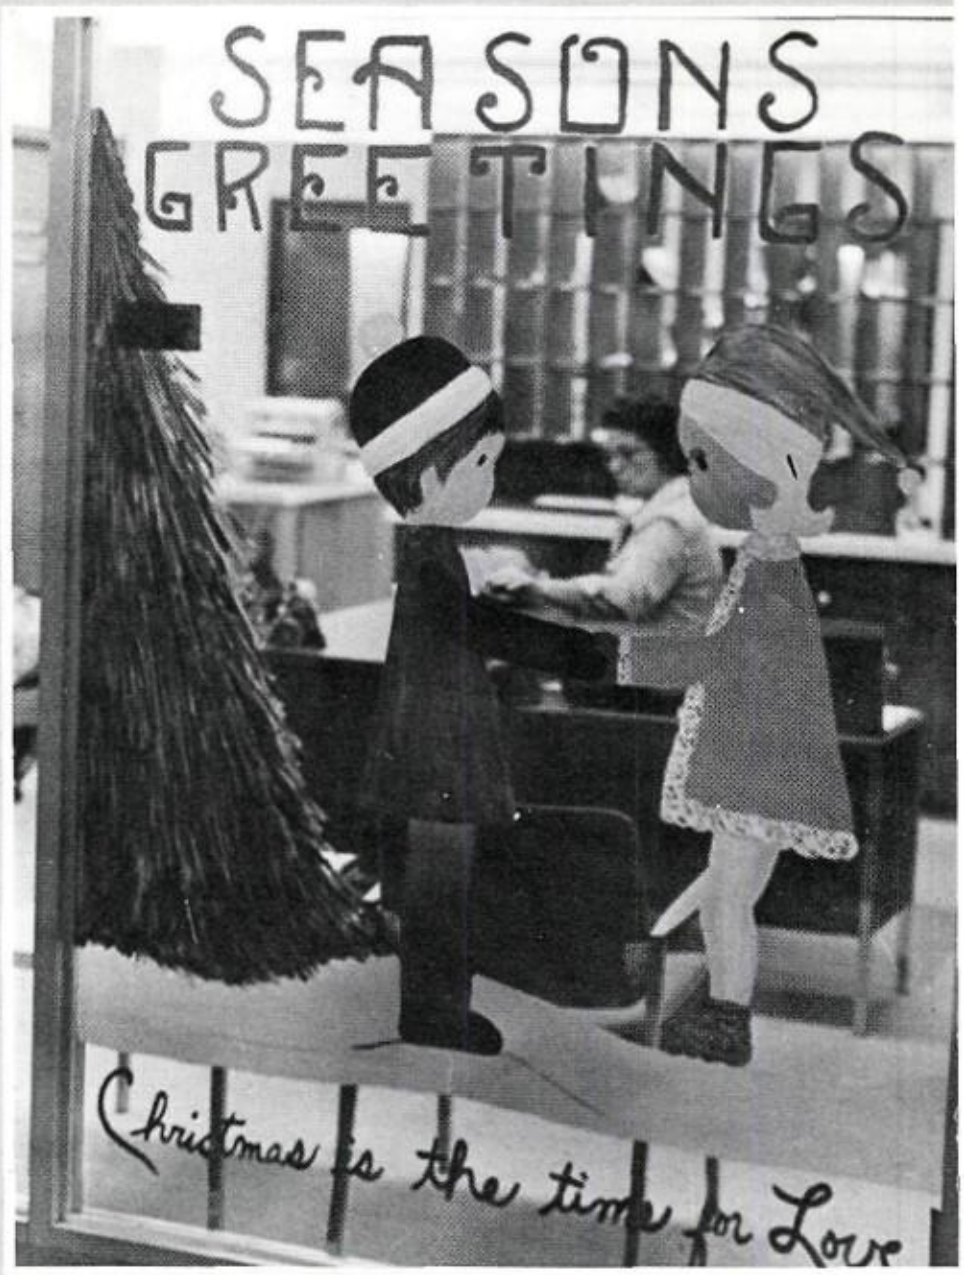
Mom, I want some cotton candy; 2 hamburgers, snowcones coke, fudge, peanutbutter brittle, fried chicken but not any breador sweet potatoes, don't forget the cake . . .

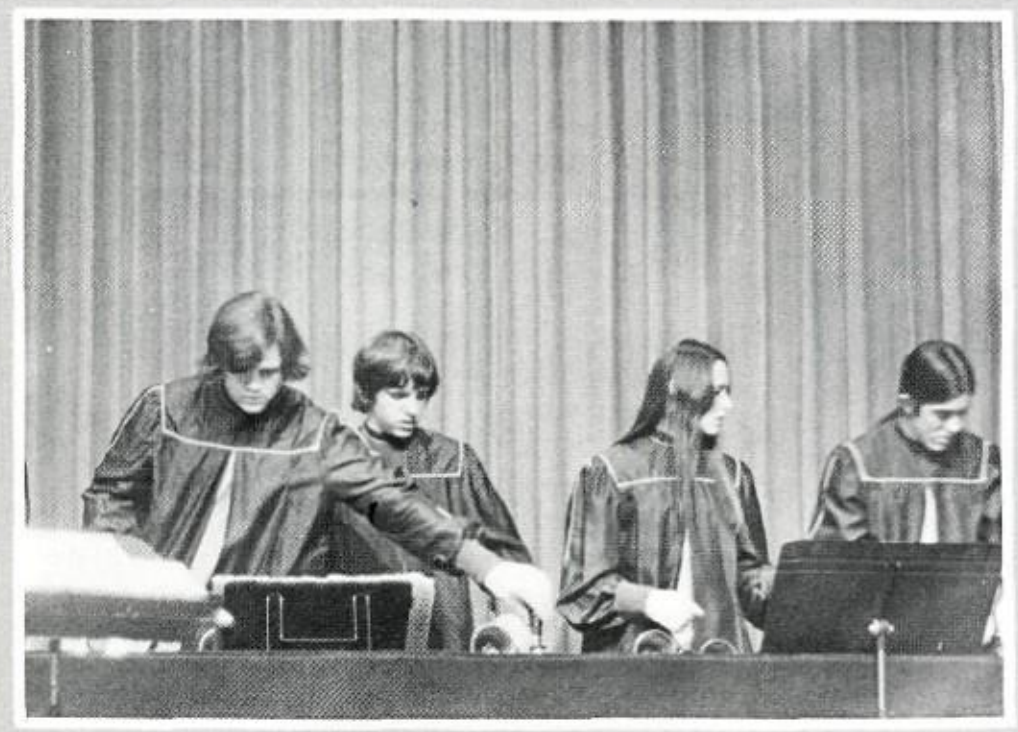
Besides all the good things to eat, there were many other "attractions" at our Harvest Festival this year. Some of the attractions were wild animals in cages, prizes, and running around pinching people. If you are the type of person who likes a more relaxing type of entertainment, a talent show with both students and teachers was presented. However, one of the most enjoyable pastimes at the carnvial was watching teachers and parents give their all working. To everyone that contributed time, effort, and many supplies and support to this year's carnival, "Thank-You."





Advent and Lent





THE FIRST 200 YEARS

A knowledge of American history is an invitation to experience the accomplishment, drama, tragedy and hope of an infant nation struggling to grow up. Sturdy, determined pioneers hacked away at the edges of a raw continent and, with blunders and achievements alike, modeled a country with a spirited nature and a united commitment to individual liberty for every one of its citizens. Americans, great and not so great, have given us a heritage to carry on and improve upon. Farmers and soldiers, industrialists and merchants, dreamers and leaders, are all there in two centuries of progress.

But the maturing isn't finished. You'll find the boundaries of growth as endless today as when our forefathers first envisioned them. You can seek out your own destiny with the wisdom and judgement which comes with re-creation of the past. Your knowledge, dreams and industry will carry on through many more centuries of living history.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. — We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world. —

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. —

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. —

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. —

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. —

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. —

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within. —

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. —

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers. —

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries. —

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance. —

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures. —

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power. —

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: —

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: —

For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States: —

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: —

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent: —

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury: —

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences —

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies: —

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: —

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever. —

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us. —

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. —

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. —

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands. —

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends. —

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by the Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. —

And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

CHAPTERS OF AMERICAN HISTORY

The Stamp Act of 1765 was an attempt by England to tax items that were wholly American. The colonists reacted in seething resentment which erupted into angry protestations. The first blood of the American Revolution was spilled during one such incident at Boston in 1770. Several Americans lost their lives over a snowball thrown at a British sentry.

In the fight to achieve commerce equality, the United States found itself in a naval war over shipping lanes. Fort McHenry was heriocally held during a British naval bombardment, and the stars and stripes still flew after a night of hard fighting. The next morning Francis Scott Key penned the immortal words of what would become the national anthem.

Settlers had to have permanent access to the new lands, so canals and bridges were built to carry stages and wagon trains loaded with machinery destined for settlements in the West. The pioneers foresaw great wealth in the cheap acreage that was available.

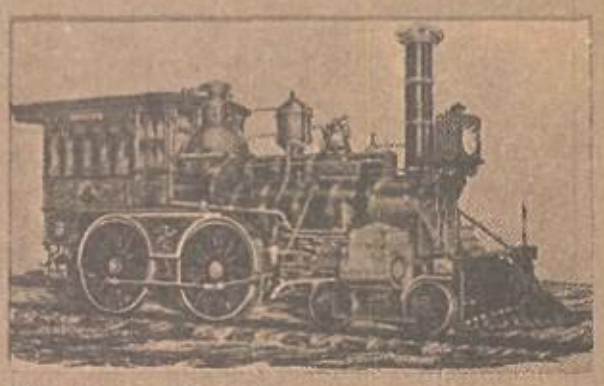
Frontiersmen cleared the wilderness, built settlements and drove back the Indians. The Pony Express and the telegraph became primary means of communication.

Agriculture was the wealth of the country. American inventions of the time were often related to working the soil. The McCormick Reaper, mowing machines, textile looms and the cotton gin were instrumental in the settling of new frontiers.

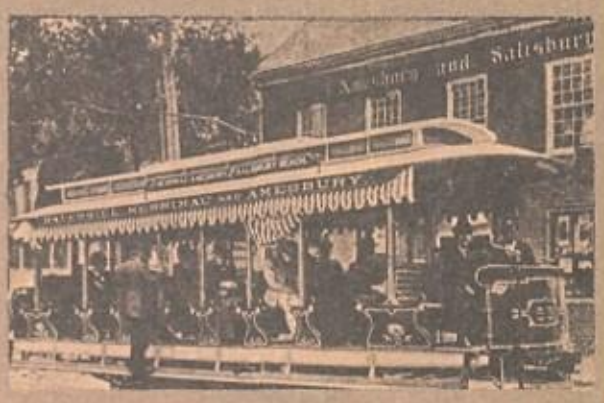
In 1848, James Marshall found gold in the race of a sawmill he was building for John Sutter at Coloma, California. The lust to "get rich quick" was the force behind this biggest and gaudiest gold rush ever.

While "gold rush fever" gripped the country, states were increasingly more divided on the slavery issue. Civil war broke out in the East. This "Brothers War" was bitterly fought and, though the scars remain even today, slavery was abolished.

Cities grew at an alarming pace; often without regard to the limits of safety. The great Chicago fire of 1871 burned the bustling cattle market empire beyond recognition. But the pioneer spirit was not broken. Chicagoans began rebuilding and preparations were underway to celebrate the 100th birthday of the country.



The "Iron Horse," carrying homesteaders, greatly helped settlement of the new country. The first transcontinental railroad connected the country at Promontory Summit, Utah, on May 10, 1869.



Transportation was setting the pattern for the American way of life. The country became a mobile society with electric trolleys, automobiles, farm machinery, and bicycles, all the rage. Along with the accessibility of travel came a new era of nationalism.

A World War called upon the nation's young men to unite and fight. After the war in Europe, the nation pulled itself together and industry flourished once again. A carefree America buried war memories in the new moving pictures, telephones, light bulbs, electric generators, stock market ticker tape machines, phonographs and a wealth of inventions from the fertile minds of its young inventors. Baseball became the national sport and prohibition was law.

Black Thursday, October 24, 1929, saw the American stock market crash to the lowest level in history. Panic set in as the unemployment level skyrocketed. The country was in its worst economic crisis. Slowly, but surely, the wounds of the "crash," the "dust bowl," and poverty healed.

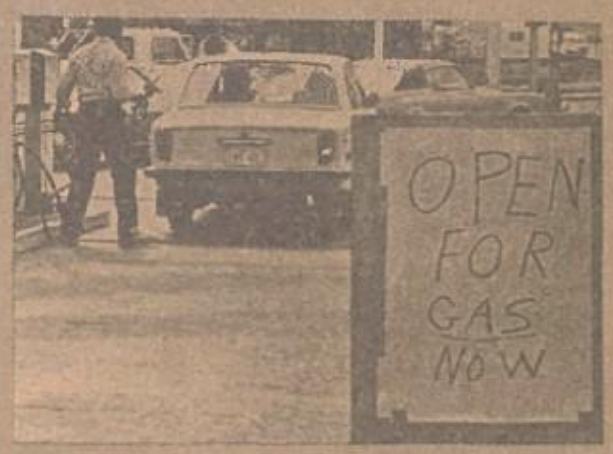
The steel industry geared up for the revival while rumors were whispered in the Roosevelt administration of another impending war. The nation's leaders scoffed; until December 7, 1941 Pearl Harbor!

Industrial production reached a peak during the war years. Upon their return from four years of battle, the veterans forged ahead with an eye on a "better life for everyone." Several moderate recessions in the 50's and 60's reminded cautious citizens of past decades.

Huge strides were being taken in the scientific field. Television became a part of every family's life. National events were household topics — while they happened — thanks to the new medium. Individuals and groups were seen "on the tube" as they advocated new social reform, or justice, or special causes of their own. TV gave individuals and political systems power greater than ever before. Audio-visual journalism had made its impact.

Nearly 100 years of struggling for civil liberties were realized when President Lyndon Baines Johnson signed the Civil Rights Act of 1964 into law. The Act outlawed segregation in any form.



The seventies shed light on a new trouble for the nation as it approached its 200th birthday. The world's energy sources and natural resources were being used up faster than they could be replenished. Americans once again waded into a new frontier. The "energy crisis" and "ecology" were prominent words in the language. Ways to save nature from the neglect of mankind and ways of preserving precious fuel without damaging that balance of nature were the objectives of Americans across the country.

Earth's crises spurred Americans into further pioneering. This time outer space. American astronauts were the first on the surface of the moon and the U.S. was first to build a "skylab" for more scientific study.

American is still learning and growing after a mere 200-year infancy. The original determination of our forefathers was told again in the words of Neil Armstrong as he made the first step on the moon "a small step for man, but a giant step for mankind."

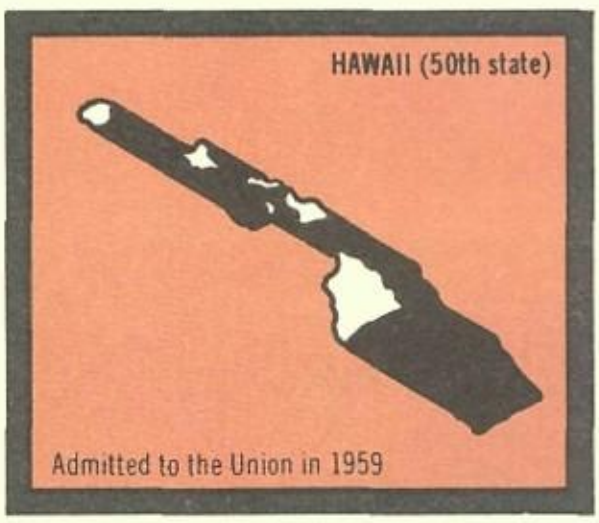
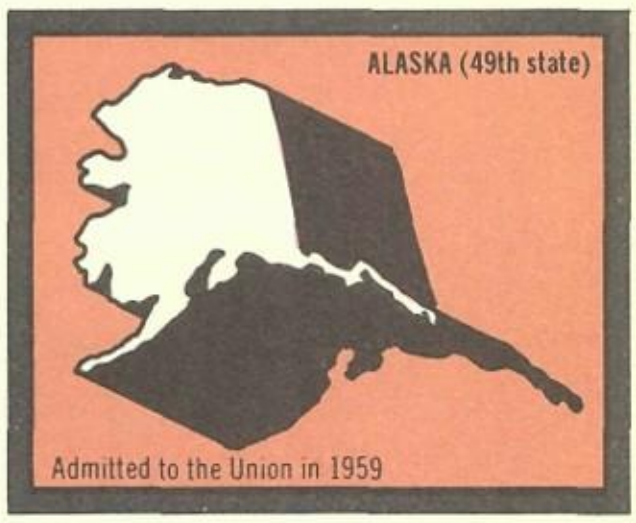
THE CHANGING NATION





Ownership of land had been just a dream to most of the colonists from feudal England. With the great expanse of cheap land opening up in the West, the dream became reality.

The Louisiana Purchase of 1803 opened the first sizable frontier in the Midwest, but the nation was not ready for it yet. It took a growing market in the East, where land was getting high-priced and scarce, and development of good transportation, to really start the frontier movement.

The Gold Rush caused hordes of settlers to take various routes to the Pacific Coast and its yellow riches. The railroads brought farmers and ranchers, along with the miners, who decided to stop all along the routes and build their homes. Railroads were instrumental in the quick civilization of the West, bringing people in numbers so large that the resentful Indians were finally pushed back into unwanted and infertile areas.

America became a haven for immigrants from every nation as freedom beckoned them to the teeming cities of the East, the plains, and the rich west coast farmlands.

Sick of the Civil War and with their own lands divided up and lost, many Southerners set out to "begin again" in the virgin territories. "Westering" soon became the national tradition as North and South moved together toward a new life. Americanism was advanced socially, by the hard-working, bare-fisted types who settled the frontiers.

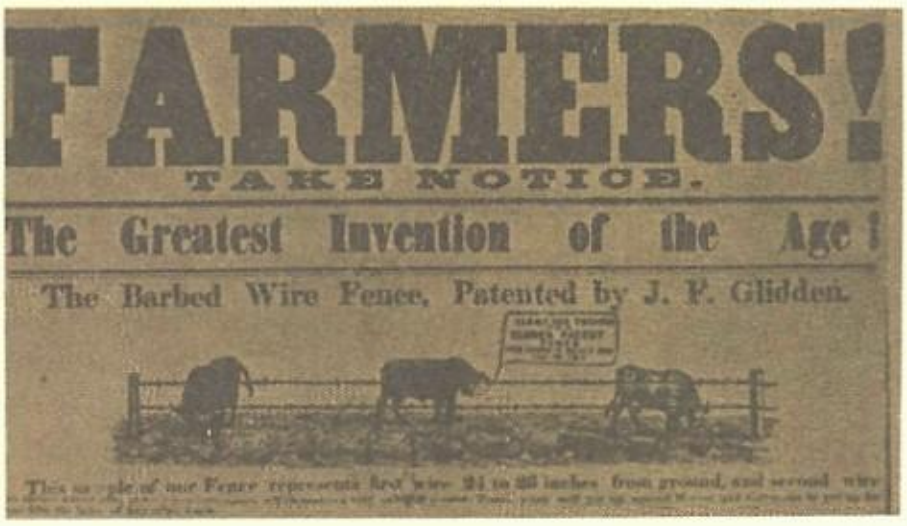
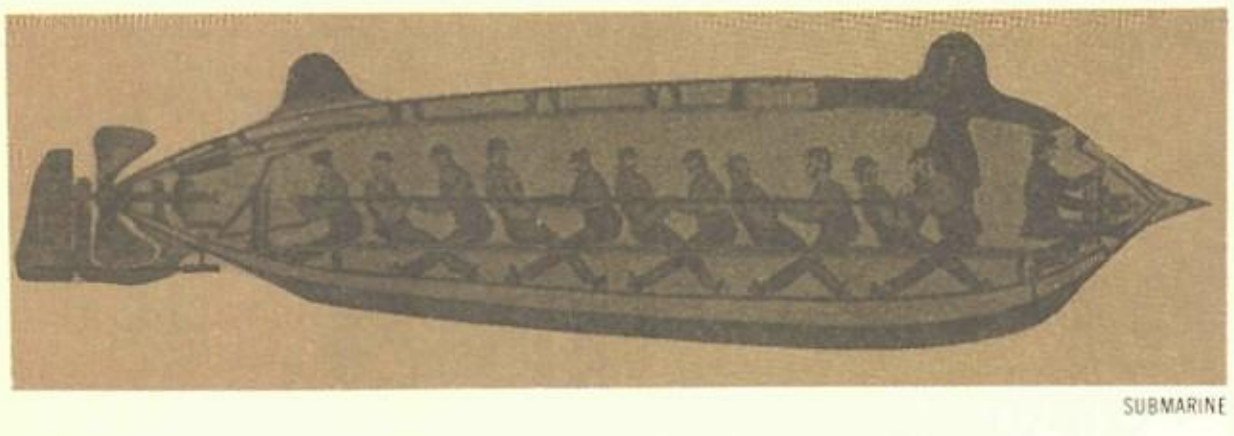
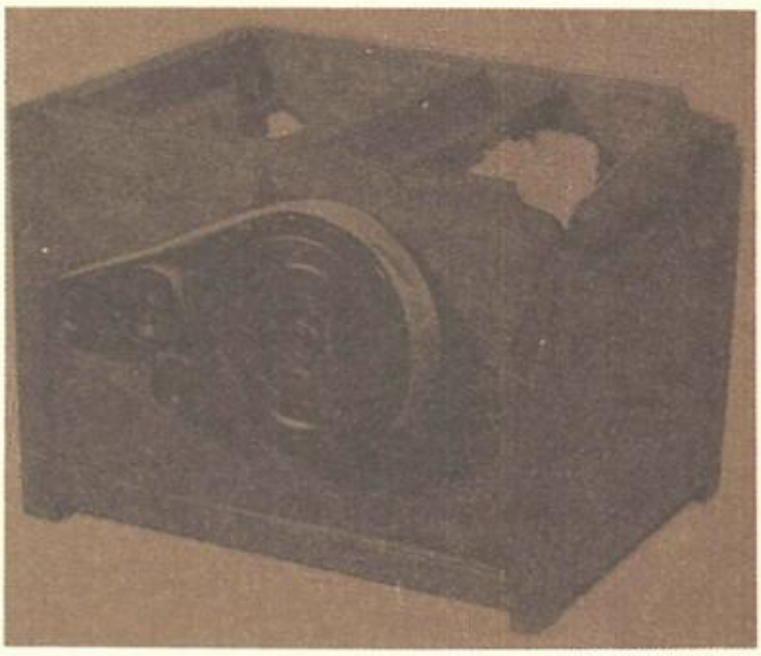
NECESSITY IS THE MOTHER OF . . .

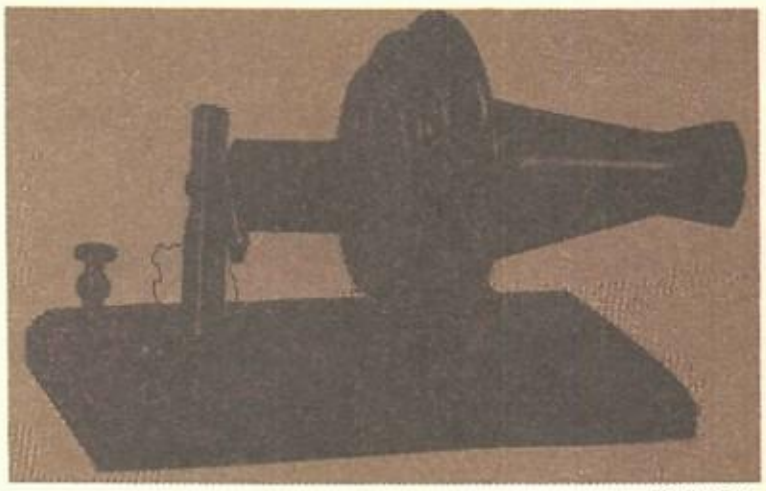




SUBMARINE



COTTON GIN (Model)



TELEPHONE

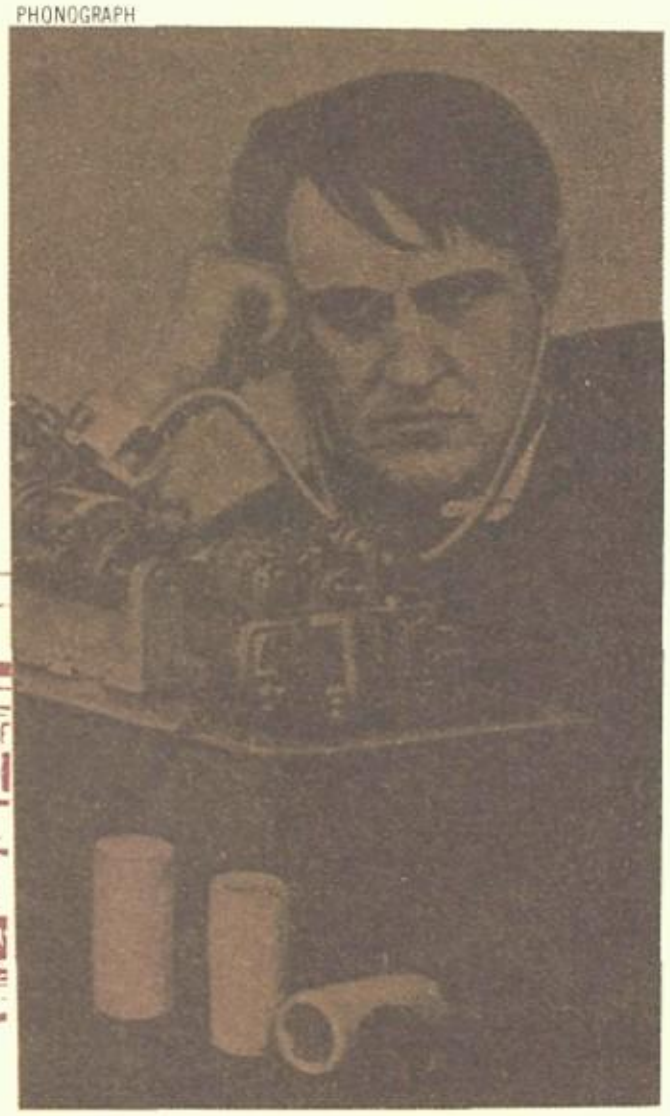
PHONOGRAPH



Without realizing it, England instilled in the colonists the individual purpose and ingenuity that necessity breeds. With trade goods cut to a minimum, determined young leaders of the time set out to find ways of surviving without support from the Mother Country.

Agricultural methods and machines and labor saving devices were designed by our forefathers. As frontiers opened, Yankee genius had to conquer natural barriers in the wild new country, so suspension bridges were invented and methods of transportation were perfected for the purpose of opening the untamed areas. Later, they sought to section off the land with the revolutionary and controversial invention — barbed wire.

Cooper's 1-horsepower Tom Thumb train in 1830 and later, automobiles like the first Model T, and the 4-horsepower airplane ; became American modes of travel from city to city and coast to coast.

Americans knew that the fertile lands of this nation would produce unequalled harvests if machines were designed to take over for man. They knew also that trade routes were difficult to travel and manufacturing would have to be done close to home. The cotton gin, textile looms, drill presses and a reaper which could cut six times as much grain as a hand scythe were some of the tools invented.

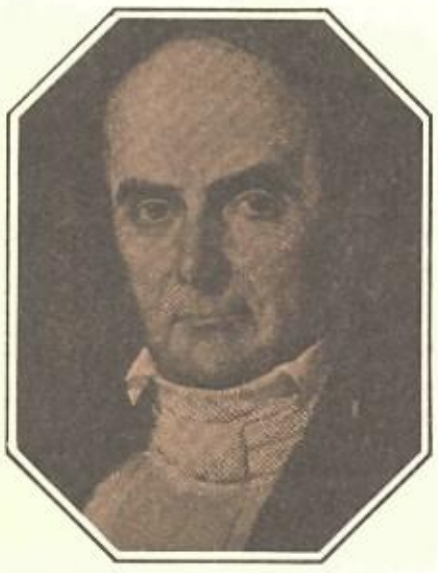
Protection for themselves and for their young country prodded inventors like Eli Whitney to perfect firearms and others to work on plans for the first submarine. Young inventors like Alexander Graham Bell and Thomas Edison (called the nation's most valuable citizen) visualized machines that would light the country and open up communication with those in the far corners of the nation. The telephone, telegraph, phonograph and the first light bulb were discovered in the late 1800's and early twentieth century. This American way of doing for oneself inspired many to become inventors in their own right. Some sought to save labor and mass-produce for profit while others envisioned not only riches, but excitement and adventure as they discovered ways to defy nature.

Throughout the past 200 years the American mind has been unleashed to take whatever paths necessary to fulfill the needs. In the last half-century, the pace of discovery has been overwhelming and inventions for the taming of the universe lie in the grasp of America while the habit of "finding a way" is ingrained in its people. The seeds of industrial America were sown by these inventors resulting in today's mechanized society.

THEY MADE THEIR MARK

Men and women who helped shape America's history

THOMAS PAINE, a bankrupt Quaker corsetmaker, sometime teacher, preacher and grocer wrote the most brilliant pamphlet of the American Revolution. His words in Common Sense reflected longings and aspirations that have remained part of American culture to this day.



DANIEL WEBSTER chose law as a career and went on to become well-known in the courts and in politics. He was twice Secretary of State with an eye always to the Presidency which eluded him.

DOROTHEA DIX worked her entire adult life for reform of the existing penal and mental institutions in the mid-1800's. The first state hospital in the nation at Trenton, New Jersey was a direct result of her efforts.

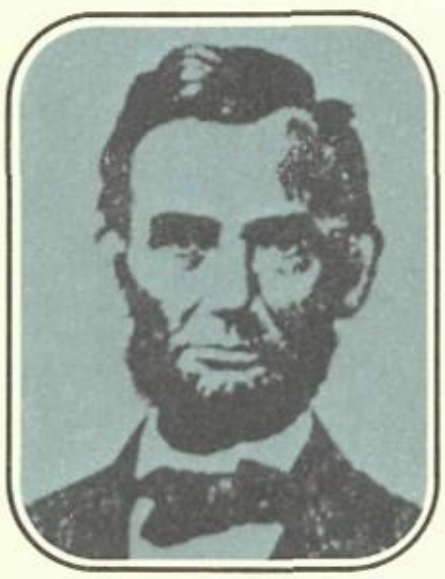
The creator of the Cherokee alphabet, SEQUOYAH, was an artist, writer and silversmith. He used a simple 1821 English primer to compose the characters. The famous redwood trees of the Pacific coast bear his name.

Chief Justice JOHN MARSHALL established fundamental principles of American constitutional law. He is noted for his precedental declaration of a Congressional act as unconstitutional. He served through five administrations, from 1801-1835.

Born a slave in Maryland, FREDERICK DOUGLASS taught himself to read and write secretly and, at 21, escaped to freedom. He was an ardent abolitionist campaigning successfully for Negro suffrage and civil rights.

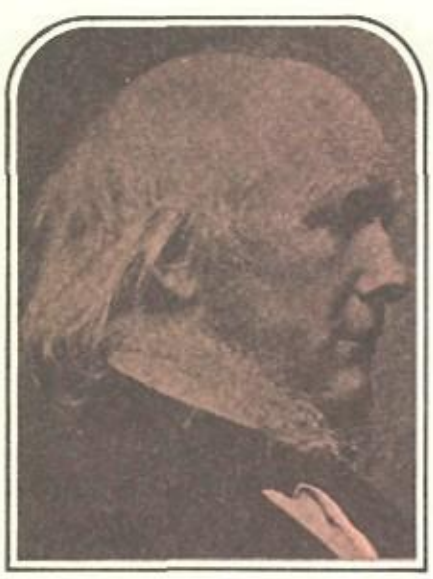
"The New Colossus," a sonnet composed by EMMA LAZARUS in 1883 is inscribed on a bronze tablet at the base of the Statue of Liberty. She organized relief for Jews and helped fugitives from the Czar's ghettos to establish homes in America.

AMELIA JENKS BLOOMER, best known for a mode of dress she adopted during her campaign for equal rights for women. Though ridiculed until she gave up the costume, the term "bloomer" came to symbolize woman's bid for individual freedom.



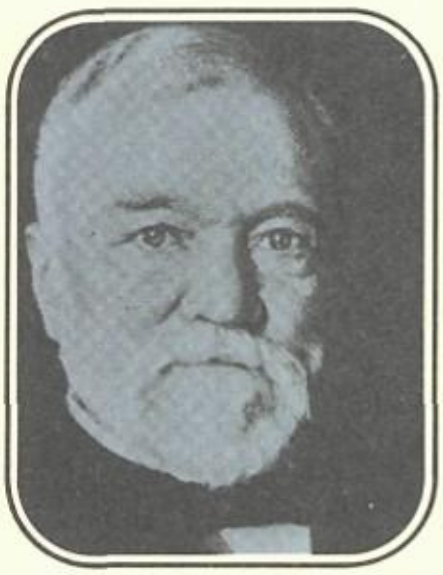
ABRAHAM LINCOLN epitomized the American dream of a humble young man ascending to the highest office of the land. He was superbly skilled at analyzing complex issues and translating them into meaningful words for the public. He was devoted to the preservation of the Union.

HARRIET BEECHER STOWE wrote Uncle Tom's Cabin in an effort to make the whole nation realize the inhumanity of slavery. Her book resulted in one of the most popular and controversial plays on the American stage. The Civil War was kindled by this work.



HORACE GREELEY'S admonition to "Go West young man" was a rallying cry of the pioneers of America. He was founder and editor of the New York Tribune. He was best known for his philosophy of social reform and his unsuccessful bid for the Presidency in 1872.

JOSEPH PULITZER was the first journalist to reach a truly massive audience. His New York World newspaper was the symbol of "yellow journalism" with its sensationalism aimed at the common man.

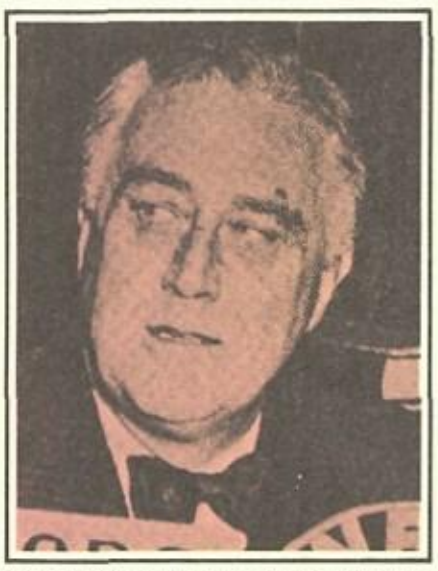


ANDREW CARNEGIE was a giant in the railroad and steel industries. He believed that it was the duty of a rich man to distribute his wealth during his lifetime. To that end, he established 2800 libraries and many cultural halls throughout America.

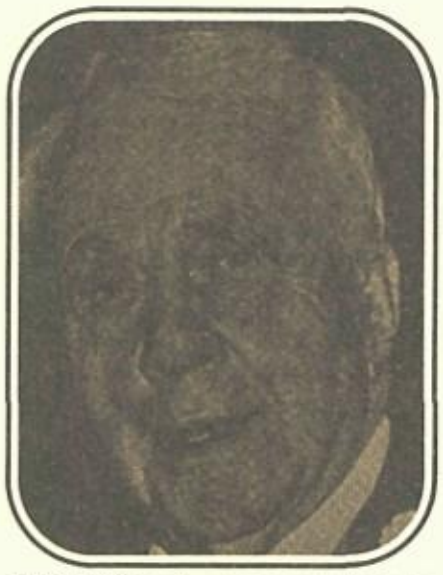
A lifetime passion for machinery led HENRY FORD to Detroit where, in 1896, he completed his first motor vehicle. The Ford Motor Company manufactured the first "Model T" in 1909.

One of the most elementary symbols of the American way of life was established when J. EDGAR HOOVER and his Federal Bureau of Investigation "G-men" set out to clean up the country. His career spanned over 40 years.

The motion-picture industry was revolutionized in America and DAVID WARK GRIFFITH became known as the "Father of the film art" and "king of directors" for his part in this revolution. His camera techniques were the pioneering steps of the industry.



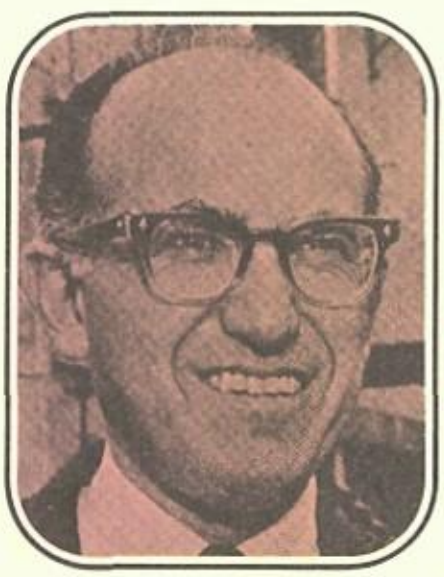
Serving an unprecedented four terms as President of the United States, FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT was a popular leader who made extensive use of fireside radio chats to explain his plans and generate enthusiasm to push them through Congress.



ROBERT FROST's poetry was clear, understated, well-metered and told the stories of rural America. He was a four-time winner of the Pulitzer Prize and has been called America's poet laureate.

A plain, homely woman with tremendous appeal to the masses, who was always in the "thick of things" describes ELEANOR ROOSEVELT and her lifetime of politicking beside her husband during his four terms.

THURGOOD MARSHALL is the first Negro to serve as a justice of the Supreme Court. His law career was aimed primarily at civil rights cases.



The crippler poliomyelitis was conquered by DR. JONAS SALK in 1953 after more than 25 years of research. Polio was reduced by 96% in less than ten years. SALK's research continues in California at the Salk Institute.

MARTIN LUTHER KING was a leader in the cause of civil rights. He had been a pastor before turning to the cause of segregation. His leadership earned him the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964. He was assassinated by James Earl Ray in 1968.

Lieutenant Colonel JOHN GLENN started America's travels to outer space when he became the first American to orbit the earth. He had been an aviator in World War II and a test pilot in peacetime.

GERALD R. FORD, the first President to achieve the office without an election. In 1974, through a series of scandalous events, the Nixon administration toppled and FORD reached the position through approval by Congress.

RELIEF for the DISTRESSED and BALM for the WOUNDED is found in

PERRY DAVIS'S VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

Manufactured by PERRY DAVIS & SON,

No. 74 HIGH STREET, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

COTTON.

Imagine buying that acre of land you have spotted for $1.25! Or, even at the higher price of $10. Those are the prices offered to our founding fathers to encourage settlement of the wilderness areas of this nation.

A stage wasn't the most comfortable way to go, but you could get from city to city for as little as $3 — at the amazing pace of six miles per hour.

Compare today's wages with a 12-hour day in the early 1800's. A man earned 50¢ a day. Of course his dollar bought a little more than today's. Butter in 1826 was about 5¢ lb. in the Midwest; eggs, 3¢ doz.; corn 6¢ bu., wheat, 25¢ bu.; and a cow could be bought for $5.

With travel becoming the American tradition, you could choose train, wagon, horseback or the water. A canal ride, with bed and board included, averaged 3 or 4¢ per mile. And when you reached your destination, you could sit down to a 5, or even 10 course meal for 25¢. (Ladies 20¢, in consideration of appetite.)

Farmers in the early 1800's could own the famous McCormick Reaper for a mere $100. But the Civil War increased prices as the machine became the first item farmers could buy on time payments for the sum of $1,500.

A good suit of clothes then might cost $1.95 and ladies waists (blouses) were marketed for 49¢ to $3.50 with a whole dress pattern priced at 15¢.

Cookstoves, "quality-satisfaction guaranteed," could cost you $29.25 at $4 per month and a dandy heating stove could set you back as much as $5.73 and up. The first electric refrigerator cost $900 — which might be enough to make you faint on your 1907 fainting couch that had cost a mere $7.85.

Your new baby travelled in the height of fashion in a wicker sleeping coach (stroller) for the sum of $12.04. If you had $1,500 in 1903 you could show off in one of the first automobiles.

Ah, those were the days. Some of the current prices are reminiscent of those days, but at frontier prices, which were a whole different story. Hardy pioneers had to pay $2 a pound for sugar, too. And the same for a pound of coffee or pepper. Those items were only 15¢ per pound back in civilized St. Louis. Flour was marked up 100 times for sale to the frontiersmen and during the famous Gold Rush, that precious commodity went for $400 a barrel.

Philadelphia Museum,

IN THE UPPER PART OF THE

CHESNUT STREET, (ABOVE SIXTH.)

OPEN throughout the day, and ILLUMINATED every evening.

Admittance 25 Cents.

This Museum is the oldest and largest establishment in the United States, and contains immense collections of the Animal and Mineral kingdoms of nature, from all parts of the world. These are all beautifully arranged, so as to enable the visitor to study the objects with the greatest advantage. The collection of implements and ornaments of our aboriginal tribes is very extensive and interesting, and the Cabinet of Antiquities, and Artificial Curiosities, is not less worthy of attention. In addition to the ordinary attractions of a Museum, there is in this a very large collection of the Portraits of American Statesmen and Warriors of the Revolution, and of the most distinguished scientific men of Europe and America.

The Founder, C. W. Peale, desirous of securing the Museum permanently in this city, obtained an act of Incorporation, by which the stability of the Institution is insured. The act of Incorporation secures the use of the Museum in perpetuity to the city, and authorizes the Stockholders to appoint annually five trustees, who meet quarterly to regulate the business of the Institution. Nothing can be removed from the Institution under a penalty, and forfeiture of double the value of the thing removed; hence donations may be made with certainty on the part of the donors, that the articles placed in the Museum will always remain for the public good.

This year's Advent Assemblies expressed both talent in the local community and talent within St. Louis High School. Starting the year off, Fr. Cary Landry entertained and inspired with his songs about his relationship and love for Christ. The Wesleyan Bell Choir, from First Methodist Church in Lake Charles supplied one-of-a kind entertainment with their bells. St. Louis students shined as the last Advent assembly consisted of a touching play by the Drama Club on the subject of new birth.

Lent had as a theme, this year-reconcilliation. A full-length movie, THE HEART IS A LONELY HUNTER showed how people can overlook chances to make others lives fulfilled. Programs were offered by the Theology Department on the Sacrament of Penance, especially the new Rites that go into effect next year. A unique experience offered to each grade level was a Penance Service, used to prepare us for Easter.

Bicentennial Day

St. Louis students took an active part in showing their interests in the Bicentennial Celebration in the 1975-76 school year. Each class had a historic period in United States history in which to portray. Marion and Barbe High Schools added to the St. Louis Bicentennial Day with singing and stage band performances. The Francis Scott Key play was also performed to top off our celebration of our country's 200th birthday.

Jr.-Sr. Prom

Welcome to FROSTED FANTASIES. The Junior class of "76" hosted a great Prom for the Seniors. The juniors worked real hard to provide a great Prom. The Juniors want to thank Ms. Bellard and Mr. Stearns for putting so much of their time into Prom. Some of the decorations included a sleigh with its deer, the fabulous castle cake. We would like to thank all of the parents who donated materials for the scenery. We were "entertained" by the Wenchester Road Show, who were from Houston Texas.

According to a Junior class poll this year's Prom was the best ever in the history of St. Louis.

Pelican State

This year six students were chosen to participate in Pelican State. The purpose of the program is to give students from all over Louisiana experience in government. The government at Pelican state is paralleled to that of Louisiana. The participants are divided into the Nationalist and Federalist parties. Anyone can run for office. Pelican State has its own constitution and they have the power to make any laws. The trials are subsided over by Judge and District attorney.

Conventions are held in the same manner as that of the Democratic and Republican conventions.

Leonard Breda after participating in Pelican State, commented: "It was a unique experience. I enjoyed it very much, even though it included long hours and hard work."

Senior Honors Assembly

The Senior Gift: "All the wonders you seek are within yourself". After four years of growing, living, loving, and learning together, a person not only finds answers through his friends, but also within himself. Deciding on a gift for the school from all the seniors was not an easy task, The seniors of '76 noticed that nowhere in the school was displaced our Saint mascot. So with two themes in mind, the artist set to work to express the sentiments of the graduation Seniors. At the front of the library lies a Marble Marker bearing the inscription "All the wonders you seek are within yourself. "

Paul, "Chico"

You are the foxiest black dude I know & the past 3 years I've known you have been wonderful. You're a beautiful person Paul, and I want to thank you for all the times you've listened to me, especially when I needed someone to talk to — someone I could share a smile with. You've brought sunshine to my life & I want to thank you for all your warm & beautiful smiles. Paul, I wish you all the happiness in the world & I hope all your dreams come true. You've got a special place in my heart Paul and I pray that God will bless you with all the best things in life. I hope you accomplish all the goals you reach for in life. I'm sure gonna miss ya when our senior year is over. Knowing you has been an inspiration and I've really learned alot of things. I love you Paul, just for being your sexy, beautiful self. and I'll never forget the good times we had together, especially all the laughs. One thing I'll never forget is that special charm you've got around those "mysterious" gentle dark eyes!! Please don't ever forget me. Take Care of yourself. Love and Friendship always

Vicki

Know where you're going. Join the Navy.

It could be one of the most important moves you ever made. Because while you're learning a good vocation, you'll be earning good pay. Along with benefits that really mean something. There's no life like the Navy life if you want to be Someone Special. For full details, see your local Navy recruiter. He can tell you what you qualify for before you enlist.

Dyer, Christine-19

To Paul:
You have become a very special friend of mine. We've had our ups and downs, but we've always seemed to work things out. Remember all the fun times we shared together? Oh, remember that trip to New Orleans, (ha, ha). Well let me wish you the best of luck in your future years. Especially with the women. (DOT THAT you'll NEED (it).
Stay sweet.
Love Always,
Sonya

To Paul-
A very sweet and handsome dude. You have it all, it's just a matter of time. I am sure you know what I am talking about. What I have always enjoyed being around you because we are very like minds. I hope we will always be friends.
Love ya always,
Betty

Dear Paul, (or should I say * Chico *)
You are the most sweetest, understanding, sincere, honest, and yet sneakiest guys I've ever met in my entire lifetime. (so far) I've had the honor and pleasure to enjoy each of these characteristics of yours in the past year and hope to enjoy them (with you) in the future. Our little fling was much more than it appeared to be. It was an experience one could never forget. You taught me t not be selfish and ugly even when I wa burning mads. You always seem to hav a sweet, cool, glowing look in your eyes that always made me feel happy whenever I was around you. Even though we had more of our share of ups & downs we worked them out well. Or, most of them. It was an experience I could never forget even if I tried to. Too bad it didn't last longer. Probably could have been an even better thing if we both put forth enough effort. I could never say, I don't love you. Cause somewhere, deep-down inside of me, will always say I do; in its own way.

So Paul, in the future, just be your warm, wonderful self and you'll get anything and everything you want. Lots of luck in the coming years.

Luv ya always,
Shari* (Tootsie)

Remember, (My sweet kisses)
Remember, (When I thru food in your shirt?)
Remember, (When I caught you outside (behind the bush) Don't be shame)
Remember, (That Donkey I gave me)

Pap,
We've got to become pretty good friends in these last four years. I wish we could always be close, but it seems like after high school you lose the ties you once had with so many people. Even tho friendships can't last forever, the memories of them will. I'll always remember you as a great person and friend.
Never change, Pap.
Love,
Susan

Paul, the
I have Pleasure of calli my cousin, which is to say. Because knowing a special thing to it wasn't for Shari, We be really friends. But I have gotten to know
I hope you stay as ("Even though you see me only at school +
when Corteez is family is out her, Stay sweet!)
Good Luck in the Future

Love ya,
Stephanie

Dear Paul,
So glad we finally got a chance to talk outside school.
Hope you enjoy the rest of your Junior
year.
Love ya,
Kathy

Paul,
To a very sweet person who we will (I hope)
be friends for Ever.

Love ya always
Karen

say nigger
this is me!
???

Paul
You're a sweet guy who I like and adore
keep with it always!
you got it 'tand it.

Love, Polly.

Paul I just started beginning to know you.
and I think the time I knew you was cool. You are a very comical person. And you will get far with that sence of humor. So stay that way and fight
this so-called hard world. Stay sweet
Jill

Paul,
a very sweet, person,
with a wonderful personality that I have learned to like (really) in the past year; good luck
after your senior year.
